Wanted: houses to rent

Two houses are needed right away. One by the end of the month; the other sooner than that. It's sort of the good news/bad news situation. First, the bad news. Five destroyed the house on Scrub Grass Road last Wednesday occupied by Mrs. Betty Trussell. Everything she owned was lost, except the clothes she had on at the time. She is starting over collecting clothing, furniture, appliances and "just everything," as her daughter, Mrs. Betty Belmont put it.

And "just everything" includes a house, which isn't easy to come by, and is in the mountains where she lives with her daughter and family at 225 Strouds Run. Her husband's donations may be left on the shelves. She has 20 years' worth of clothes and 17 years' worth of shoes. Incidentally, the Trussells have no phone as either wife or drop by with information on housing.

My wife, the former Kelly Dellinger, was an equally popular teacher. She was also a very good cook. She is presently assisting a manager of Fraser Farm Supply in Whitesburg.
