Correction

The correct name in a deed transfer should have read Mark A. and Susan R. Fryman, not Susan R. Ritchie, as appeared in last week's paper.

SUITS FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT
Honorable Jack Arnold, Judge

86-CI-066, Roger Frederick vs Rhonda Watkins.

People poet Jesse Stuart profiled

"I have this feeling the land and I are one," said Jesse Stuart.

In celebration of what would have been his eighthieth birthday, KET presents a look at the life and writings of Kentucky's poet of the people, Jesse Stuart. The half-hour program titled "Jesse Stuart" airs Thursday, August 7 at 9:30 p.m. on KET.

Scenes of residence, family and W Hollow are shown in home movies and are narrated with readings by Jesse Stuart himself.

James Stuart, the writer's brother, says Jesse heard music in the wind and wrote on whatever he could find–flour sacks, even a leaf when the inspiration and thought hit him. According to Stuart's brother, the writer never rewrote anything. Once it was done, it was done.

His wife, Naomi Deane Stuart, talks of their marriage in 1939 and shows their home in W Hollow which was built around a single log room.

Lt. Saunders participates in Global Shield '86

First Lt. Bonnie L. Saunders, daughter of Charles A. Gates of 319 Sycamore, Carlisle, participated in Global Shield '86, an exercise involving U.S. Air Force, Navy and Marine Corps units, and elements of the Canadian forces.

The exercise, coordinated by the Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC), was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of SAC to carry out orders should deterrence fail.

Saunders is deputy chief of the Public Affairs Division with the 321st Strategic Missile Wing at Grand Forks Air Force Base, N.D.

Her husband, Charles, is the son of Hilda B. Dunn of 1781 Yorktown Road, Lexington.

Chairs Jones' campaign

Don Issel, former University of Kentucky and pro-basketball star, was named state campaign chairman by the Committee to Elect Brereton Jones Lieutenant Governor at a Lexington press conference. Issel, 37, the all-time leading scorer for UK and the fourth leading scorer in pro-basketball history, emphasized that this would be his first public foray into the political arena. — Photo submitted

Fence destroyed, car total loss

Bruce Fuller of Carlisle escaped serious injury when the car he was driving left the road and plowed through the fence on the Hicel Asbury farm on Old Paris Road.

The accident occurred Sunday, July 27 about 1 p.m.

Deputy sheriff Chuck Smith said that the car ran up the embankment on the opposite side of the road before crossing over and hitting the fence row. Approximately 30 feet of fencing was destroyed.

The car, a 1971 Olds, was a total loss.

Pilot for business income tax filing

The Internal Revenue Service is conducting an electronic/magnetic tape filing pilot for U. S. fiduciary income tax returns, forms 1041 and U.S. partnership tax returns, forms 1065.

The pilot is for tax year 1986 returns and includes data captured by used forms and schedules. Unlike the forms 1040, individual income tax returns pilot conducted last year at the Cincinnati Service Center, there are no geographic restrictions upon participation.

Businesses will have the option of filing electronically or via magnetic tape. In either case, the return data will be transmitted to the Internal Revenue Service in Andover, Massachusetts.

Businesses interested in obtaining qualifications, application forms or other information should call the Internal Revenue Service electronic filing office at (202) 566-7541 or write: Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C. 20224, Attn: Electronic Filing Office.

At national homemaker conference

Mrs. Edith Kendall from Nicholas County joined over 2,000 women from across the nation to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the National Extension Homemaker Council.

Mrs. Kendall was among the participants in the four-day conference held on the Virginia Polytechnic Institute campus in Blacksburg, July 20-24.

Fifty-six educational workshops aimed at the homemaker and her environment were presented. The workshops included sessions on the popularity of vintage clothing and how to make it work in your wardrobe, how to reduce your chances of osteoporosis (the "brittle bone" disease) through changes in your diet, the current campaigns and legislation designed to reduce the incidences of child abuse and neglect, and the changing roles of members in the American family.

KEHA officers attending the "Golden Anniversary" conference were President Patty Ann Moorhead, Falmouth; Vice-President Kaye Fournier, Cadiz; and Treasurer Paula Sell, Benton. Helen Palmer of Clark County, NEHA clothing and cultural arts chairman, presented national awards in that area.

Kentucky homemakers received honorable mention for clothing project conducted throughout the state. Kentucky also placed third in the international awards category.
