Howard Schaefflerberg won't know, probably for several years, the total impact his state lost last month had on Kentucky football.

Following are some of the things Schaefflerberg shared with an audience in Elizabethtown.

"I came to Louisville to do something that's never been done before," he said. "If I had already been to the Great Bowl, I wouldn't have come here because I've coached a team to a national championship."

"I had the sports writers in the country said I had my mind and the other half weren't sure. I was every news organization, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, the Miami Herald, all the TV networks, all of them, all been to our camp to see the kids. Now we hope they'll be around for the next year."

"I've told you we're going to win a national championship. It may sound very new, but it's our attitude. It's not anything less than that that I'd be chasing you to talk to me. Schaefflerberg added, "I believe that about the only requirement for the trophies was being a member of the team."

"I would not put my head and let that I can pick 11 players who were not nominated here, then select (Denny) Crum, Lou Carnesecca and (Edson) Bolton to coach. Then practice three days on a 10 game team and break even or better."

Although I'm not a sports journalist, I do do sports. I really think this little article about you is a good thing. I'm writing you on your part to re-organize the football team."

"You also wrote a couple of weeks ago about Benny Wallace's future as a pro. You stated he would survive in the NFL. I'm writing you. Come on, Bob, get serious. I have written you for years. I'm writing you. Jerry Wendt confirmed this in a half time interview of a pro game."

"I'm writing to coach. I believe I have a lot of disinterest in our state. UK has its big blue team, and Eastern has its Maroon team and we have Big Red. But I don't think we can do anything without it. It's not on our own or our flag. Those things say 'United we stand, divided we fall.'"

"With that Schaefflerberg sent complimentary signals to UK and its fans as well as other state school football programs."

Dotson high jumps to state meet title

Nicholas County senior Gary Dotson made his final competition as a blue-jacketed member of the team by winning the Class A high jump at the State High School Track and Field Meet Saturday in Lexington.

Competition consisted of eight participants in each event with medals awarded to the top six finishers. Both teams are coached by Greg Lechner, in his first season as head coach.

5th place finishes were recorded: Christl Bassell, 19.92 in the 110-meter low hurdles; Sandra Warner, 31.11 in the shot put; and Carla Hall, 4.01 in the high jump.

In the 100-yard relay, the Jacks finished sixth. Team members were Scott Ramsey, Chris Hollar, Keith Howard and Colleen.

Nicholas County, with 11 points, led for much of the meet. In the girls Class A event, three members of the Nicholas County track team were named to the All-Star team.
