Sewing baskets?

Yes! According to Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Skeen the biggest grounds, called booklet grounds, were used many years ago for holding needles, thread, material, etc. Mr. Skeen has put handles and a knob on these grounds, some costing as much as $9. In the chest, a bottle ground reads: "The grounds were raised from seed ordered from a catalogue. They are green as a ground" when packed, and take a year to dry out and turn brown.

Miss Lyons marries Mr. Moore at Moorefield Methodist Church

Katherine Dawn Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Lyons, Sr., of Carlisle, and John Thomas Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Moore, Paris, were married Saturday, May 21, 1:30 p.m., at the Moorefield Methodist Church, with the Rev. Gary Beck, of Paris, performing the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Tracy W. Toliver, pianist and pianist, and Miss Pamela D. Hopkins, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style floor length gown of tulle with long sleeves and chaste lace, with a long train and a full skirt. Her hair was styled in a classic updo with pearl buttons. The sheer black bolero, being the focal point of the gown, featured a ruffled collar and a long train.

Beautiful: Tips from the Hart

I need your help. I have a problem with my figure - it's not too big, but it's not too small either. I'm 18 years old, people compliment me all the time, but they think I'm skinny. I'm just fine around the waistline, but below I'm just skinnier. I mean to hope whatever it is just not fair. I've tried as young as 11 and 12 with vigorous figure diets. There's something wrong with me! Is there any type of vitamin, drug or anything that will help? My mother says I will have hips in the time. Well, I don't think so. Besides, she's the age to be proud of what she has. I want over even when I'm older. Please help me. I want to look like Mrs. Winstead.

I read your letter. I'm sure you received letters from ladies who complain about small bust, but I've never seen any woman to say small hips are a problem. The American woman seems to be more concerned with her hips than almost any part of her figure. About any woman who reads this column would love dearly to have your problem.

You can gain hips by gaining weight. You want this weight to be firm and vital! You get it by taking these tips. Some good lines for you are: Broad, wide shoulders; thin, pleated, horizontal lines in styling of fabric; wide contrasting belts; waistline that has buckling, buttons, or ruffles. You can wear bulky fabric, tweed, corduroy, knit knit or bulky knit. You will, surely, you get the lines.

It will make you feel better to know you have the type of body that fashion models have! I think what your mother said is true, you will one time have hips. Made? Yes. Hold that shower! You keep in caps and gowns graduation Sunday night. Buckner was luncheon at city night May 29.
