Two injury accidents investigated

Nicholas County Sheriff Charles Ring investigated two one-vehicle accidents that sent two local residents to the hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Fryman, 6997 Maysville Road, was enroute to work at MMI in Millersburg about 5 a.m. Feb. 27 when she lost control of her 1980 Mercury, hit a tree and overturned. She was taken by ambulance to the Nicholas County Hospital suffering from a badly broken leg and cuts about the head.

The accident occurred on U.S. 68 near the Mt. Moriah Road. Mrs. Fryman said she hit a slick spot on the highway causing her to lose control of her car.

That same night, at about 10 o'clock, Allen B. George of Cane Run Road lost control of his pickup truck on the Moorefield Road, about eight miles east of Carlisle. He was taken by ambulance to the hospital where he was kept for observation of a possible concussion.

County road improvement priorities set

Assuming state funding becomes available, Nicholas County will receive $206,156 from the 1986-87 Rural Secondary Road Program.

Jim Brown and Tommy Carpenter, representatives from the Department of Highways in Flemingsburg, told members of fiscal court at its Feb. 19 meeting that of this amount $102,000 would go towards maintaining 54.2 miles of rural secondary roads in the county, $3,000 for judicial expenses and the remaining $39,956 for any other improvements.

Magistrates recommended the following roads for asphalt sealing:

1, CR 5190, Scrubgrass beginning at Jct. Ky. 32, ending at Jct. of Ky. 36.

2, CR 5010, Abner's Mill, from Jct. CR 5014 to Old U.S. 68.

3, CR 5117, Lower Sharpsburg, from Jct. Ky. 57 to the Bath County line.

4, CR 5210, Ox Bow, from Ky. 13 to CR 5208.

5, CR 1321, Headquarters-Millersburg, from Jct. 32 and 36 to Jct. Ky. 668.

A copy of improvement priorities has been mailed to Department of Highways in Flemingsburg.

Officials in Frankfort anticipate severe cutbacks in all road improvements unless a gasoline tax, or some other funding, is approved.

Judge, mayor named ABC administrators

Mayor Lee Bentz and Judge/Executive Reese Smoot have been appointed Alcoholic Beverage Control administrators in Carlisle and Nicholas County respectively.

Bentz was approved at a special meeting of city council Feb. 26, while Smoot's appointment was announced at the Feb. 19 meeting of fiscal court.

LEGAL NOTICE
The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet

In accordance with KRS 176.051, Kentucky's noxious weed law, the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet will destroy noxious weeds on state-owned right of way at the request of the adjoining property owner.

The noxious weeds named in the law are Johnson grass, giant foxtail, Canada thistles, nodding thistles, and multiflora rose.

Persons who own property adjacent to state right of way and who are involved in eradication efforts on their property can submit a written application to the highway district office in their area. Applications and addresses of each district office will be located at state highway maintenance garages.

Continuing education classes offered

Maysville Community College will offer six continuing education activities during the month of March.

ON MARCH 8 a Babysitting Workshop will be offered by Jay Nolder. The class will meet for three consecutive Saturdays from 10 a.m.-12 noon. This class will equip participants to deal with responsibilities and major concerns of those active in babysitting.

Security of the home, fire safety, emergency procedures and basic first aid are topics to be covered. A certificate acknowledging completion of the program will be awarded to those who complete the three-week workshop. The class will meet in the MCC Auditorium.

Andy Stephenson, representative of Edward D. Jones Investments in Maysville, will offer an investment planning course beginning March 20. This class will meet for six consecutive Thursday evenings from 7-8:30 p.m. Topics to be covered include an introduction to investments, short-term investments, bonds, mutual funds, annuities and insurance, real estate partnerships and stocks.

Beginning on Thursday, March 27, Mary Jane Sharp, associate professor of psychology at MCC, will offer a class entitled Dealing With Divorce. This class, which deals with some of the major problems which result from divorce, will meet for five consecutive Thursday evenings from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Some topics to be included are becoming a single parent, the step-parenting situation, and the special needs and concerns of children after divorce. The class will be held in Room 206 at the college.

A ONE-MEETING workshop, Women in the Progressive Era, will be hosted by Dr. Nancy Forderhase on Thursday, March 27 at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Forderhase, professor of history at Eastern Kentucky University, is presenting her program in celebration of Women's History Month. This lecture, which will be held in the MCC Auditorium, is open to the public free of charge.

For fee information and to register for any of Maysville Community College's March community education offerings, contact the MCC Continuing Education Office at 606-759-7141. Some class enrollments are limited.
