Attendance drive opens at schools

The Nicholas County School Attendance Month, a statewide competition to increase pupil attendance during the month of April.

Each school district will calculate their district's attendance for the eighth month of school, Nicholas County's attendance month began March 23 and will run through April 25.

Governor Martha Layne Collins, Superintendent of Public Instruction Alice McDonald and the Kentucky Association of School Administrators proclaimed Attendance Month to emphasize the importance of pupils being in school and to identify strategies school districts can use to improve school attendance.

Following the competition, an awards ceremony will be held at the State Capitol for all school districts that achieve excellence in school attendance for the month. Criteria will be the percent of students in class and the percent of improvement in attendance.

Students in grades 1-12 will receive an official certificate for perfect attendance signed by the governor and state superintendent. Schools that record above 96 percent attendance for the month will also receive a special award.

Nicholas County was recognized last year as one of 17 counties having a 96 percent for the High Attendance Week, Nicholas County Elementary was recognized for maintaining a 96 percent attendance for the week.

Tryouts scheduled 4-H Talent Show

The annual 4-H Talent Show will be held Friday, April 18 and Saturday, April 19 in the Nicholas County Elementary School cafeteria.

Terry Prather, Nicholas County 4-H Agent, has announced that tryouts for the show will be held for students ages nine through 19 on Thursday, March 27 at 2:30 in the elementary school cafeteria.

Prather urges all talented 4-H members to participate.
