Letters from our readers

To the Editor:
I attended the meeting on the West End Park Monday night. The public was invited, to my disappointment...

To the Editor:
I just want Emily to know that I have enjoyed her column through the years. I've always told it like it was...

To the Editor:
Just to wish Mr. and Mrs. Fisher a "Happy Retirement," but will be missed in the eyes of all Nicholas County people who they have served for many, many years...

To the Editor:
Emily, as usual, I'm a little late.

Bond's Broadcast

When was all of this rain back in August?
Where it appeared the world was going to dry up, we couldn't have a drop of rain. Now, as winter rapidly approaches we can see there is a serious supply of the rain.

After managing with a great deal of help from the staff at the Mercury to get the first paper out last week, it is certainly time to say thank you to those folks...

After living in Scott County for more than three years, I now have had the opportunity to visit several people in Nicholas County...

and having long hair, lurking behind the bushes. They were hunting for him and got away from them as they fled...
