Loss at Ole Miss dims grid season; UK, UoL, WKU picked to win

People and things. "Ole," the UK football fan remarked after Ole Miss had blazed the wildcat 33 to 14 last Saturday. "Just when we were starting to get excited this happens. And now, with the UK basketball team starting practice this week, I guess that's the end of the football season."

Well, maybe not. But certainly UK's dismal performance at Jackson, Miss., coupled with the opening of basketball practice this week, and LSU and Georgia coming up next at Commonwealth Stadium, does nothing to sustain any enthusiasm among Wildcat fans.

But stay tuned.

Hype — In the hype more than substance, John Chaney is one of the best coaches period. He's been at it for nearly 20 years. I've seen it all. One of the most interesting is Steve S. Smith, who is not only a coach but also an interested in Steve S. Smith, who is not only a coach but also an interested in Steve S. Smith.

Ones people in sports — One of the things that I like about sports is that it is a team effort. It's hard to argue with this. In fact, it's hard to argue with this. In fact, it's hard to argue with this.

UK, UO, ONE-TWO — It will likely be a long time before the UK and UO are back to back. It will likely be a long time before the UK and UO are back to back.

FOOTBALL — The Kentucky football team is looking for a good performance. The Kentucky football team is looking for a good performance.

Homecoming Friday; foe is Raceland

Nicholas County dropped its seventh consecutive game of the season Friday night, a 23-0 loss to Woodford County.

The game was called midway through the third quarter when a fight broke out after a Woodford player reportedly kicked a blue-jacket on the sidelines.
