Knowledge Kentucky's greatest resource

By Auditt Yancy
Staff Writer

Dr. Gary B. Cox, right, executive director of the Kentucky Council on Higher Education, was invited into the Phi Kappa Phi honor society in ceremonies held recently at its annual banquet on the Morehead State University campus. Dr. Cox, a 1946 MSU graduate and former faculty member, was the guest speaker for the "Celebration of Academic Excellence" banquet. Making the presentation was Dr. Roscoe Playforth, retired dean and former professor of Dr. Cox's. (Submitted Photo by Tom Stone)

Cox spoke at the "Celebration of Academic Excellence" banquet of Phi Kappa Phi at the Morehead State University campus recently. He was one of the competitive in the national and international economy, we must have educated citizens and we must develop leaders," he said.

The willing to say yes, we must support and pay for improvement in education. We must graduate our high school students. We must get them into college. We must move Kentucky forward," he said.

Cox told the audience that the future lies in the hands of our youth. "You have two choices: prepare yourselves to lead this state to recognize the value of our greatest natural resource, another great citizenry — or wait! Kentucky declines further. There really is only one choice for a brighter future."

Airmen to perform at MSU

Morehead State University will present "Airmen of Note," the United States Air Force jazz ensemble, April 15 at 8 p.m. in Boston Auditorium.

The 18-member group, whose roots date back to Glenn Miller, have performed at concerts and major jazz festivals throughout the world. They have been featured on the "Tonight Show" and "The Mike Douglas Show."

Playing an active role in music education, the group has performed at the Many Educators National Convention and the National Association of Jazz Educators.

They have also shared the stage with Sarah Vaughan, Dizzy Gillespie, Carmen McRae and Sammy Davis Jr.

A leading jazz magazine "Downbeat," ranked the Airmen of Note as "one of the best bands anyone interested in big band jazz or good dance music can hope to hear today."

The second grade students at Nicholas County Elementary School were invited to Cardinal Hill Hospital last week to meet the real Mickey Mouse who had flown in to Lexington for the hospital's annual fund raising event. The students had made calendars in class for the patients at the hospital.

The U.S. Air Force jazz ensemble, "Airmen of Note," will perform at Morehead State University in Boston Auditorium at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 15, under the auspices of the Department of Music. Free tickets are available by calling (606) 785-3333.
