WKU enrollment up

Official enrollment figures released by the Kentucky Council on Higher Education by Western Kentucky University show a 3.5 percent increase over students enrolled at WKU a year ago. Western students for the spring 1987 semester total 11,707 students over 1986's 10,880 students, according to WKU Registrar Freda Egerton.

According to Egerton, the increase is attributed to WKU's continued university-wide efforts to recruit students, such as personal visits by faculty and staff members to high schools, and to increased off-campus offerings this spring as part of President Barr Alexander's plan to make Western more available to the non-traditional student population.

Garrett's Furniture
Carlisle, Ky. 289-2306
STORE HOURS: 8:30 A.M.-4:00 P.M. Mon.-Fri. 8:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M. Sat.

Garrett's Furniture Co., a family owned business, started in 1952 in Modern Furniture Co., and was located across from the Nicholas County Courthouse in the building just vacated by Western Auto. Mr. Paul Garrett then manager of Lerrimon Bros. in Carlisle managed both businesses until 1974 when he resigned from Lerrimon to give fulltime to the family business.

In 1980 the business was expanding and moved to 224 and 226 West Main Street in the two buildings formerly occupied by Galt's Bank Garage and Galt's Manufacturing Company. The name was then changed to Garrett's Furniture.

In 1983 more room was needed. An old garage building in the rear of the property was demolished and a new two-story structure was built replacing the business again. In 1978 further expansion was necessary so the building on the corner of Locust and Main, previously occupied by Home Hardware, was remodeled and became a part of Garrett's Furniture.

Doug Garrett assumed responsibility for the business in 1977 when his father, Paul Garrett, retired.

In 1985 Mr. Billy Williams, formerly of Century Furniture in Paris, joined our sales staff.

Jo Lynn Garrett has returned to the store after earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Housing & Interior Design from the University of Kentucky.

Garrett's Furniture is a full service operation serving quality home furnishings, bedding, carpets and vinyl flooring. O.S. appliances and color TVs, Porter Pairs & Vespiger and all sorts of accessories for the home.

The people of Carlisle & Nicholas County have been glad to us over the years and we really do appreciate it. We the Garretts, the countri have done it without spoil, says L.B. Garrett. During the month of June, Garrett's Furniture Co. will celebrate 35 years in business on Main Street in Carlisle, Ky.

Other company employees are: Everett Ritchie, Barbara Feedback and Billy Joe Garrett.
