Caswell receives Phillip Morris Fellowship

Twenty-one young Kentucky farmers including James Caswell of Nicholas County, or agricultural business leaders have been selected to receive the Phillip Morris Agricultural Leadership Fellowship valued at $10,000 each.

Southern States elections are scheduled

Local operations and services rendered to agriculture in the community will be discussed by Sidney Harman, manager of SOG, Inc., of Owensville, Ky.

The Kentucky farmers will be joined by four others from Tennessee and one each from North Carolina, Ohio, West Virginia, Missouri and Indiana.

Auction

At the above time we will sell for David Moran his log and frame home located on the Sugar Creek Road (KY 1241) in Nicholas County, 30 miles S. of Mayfield and 15 miles from Carlisle. Home is very near Blue Licks State Park and is just a short drive of 68.6 mile. Sale will be conducted on premises, with all auction signs.
