Memories fill the room and hearts of visitors during reunion at N.C. Elementary

By Linda Fleming
The reunion of the Nicholas County Elementary School Class of 1925-26 was held at the Nicholas County Courthouse in Flemingsburg Saturday, August 15. Edger Allison provided the music as the evening's entertainment. Carolyn Terrell secretary of the class, had the biggest honor when she took about a year to plan the location, meals and the evening's entertainment. Along with the expense there is a lot of love. Terrell added the committee should have specific seating arrangements because people like to be together and everyone wants to be important. Awards were given to several people, but the biggest honor went to Geneva Allison, Class of 1925 for faithful service rendered and office held. Others recognized were Orla and made went to Jim Frank Gentry from the class of 1924, Elizabeth K. Woods from the class of 1917 received the honor as the oldest member there. Youngest made was Charles House from the class of 1923 and the youngest female went to Phyllis Rawlings, also from the class of 1923. Person coming the farthest went to Rev. Paul Roberts from Florida. Mrs. Terrell and the dinner dinner was held on the third Saturday of August and for the past few years has been held at the Elementary School cafeteria. Annual dues are $1.00 and the price of the meal varies. "I always look forward to these meetings because a person never knows if they will ever get the chance to meet again," said Terrell. "The success of these get together would not be possible without the help and support of our officers."

Education for the city of their families, and everyone who helped make our dinner a success." Farmland... Darrell explained, in conclusion, a ditch four inches wide and six inches deep, caused by erosion, can be the beginning of a critical condition. Imagine, the Grand Canyon in Arizona may have started out as such a ditch.
