Nursing home news

The holiday season is drawing to a close and the New Year is upon us.

We had many visitors, cards and gifts. The ones that were able had an enjoyable Christmas. We want everyone to know that we greatly appreciate any act of kindness shown to us during the holiday season.

We had several groups who came caroling: Saltwell Ladies, Carlisle Christian Church children, Assembly of God Missionettes, Carlisle Baptist Church, Irvinsville Baptist Church, Herrington Methodist Church (possibly others that I am not aware of).

We were entertained on December 16 by The Lexington Musical Theatre. The residents enjoyed the mixing with patients and singing individually to them.

We had our usual Nursing Home Christmas program with staff members from different departments taking part.

Santa made two visits this year. The first Santa Claus came to check on who had been naughty or nice. Then on Christmas Eve the VFW sponsored Santa, bringing sacks of goodies.

On December 19 Edythe Rich sponsored the December birthday in honor of those celebrating birthdays during that month, one of those being Edythe's Mother, Mrs. Pologrove who celebrated her 93rd birthday. Cake and hot chocolate was served to several guest.

We were visited by the Missionary Ladies from the Sharpsburg Greater Baptist Church.

Geneva Allison made decorative soap for each resident, as she has for the past few years.

We extend our sympathy to the families of William Burden and Carolyn Gaunce.

We would like to welcome new resident, E. R. Dude Price, Hord Crouch, Earl Fryman.

We would also like to congratulate those who won awards at the annual Johnson-Mathers Health Care Christmas party. Most congenial went to Anna Lee Finch, and Employee of the Year Award was a tie: Marcella Tincher and Betty Lee Hunt, L. P. N.

We had a chair donated by Vivian Morans son, Reed Moran, which was hand woven (macramed).

Those celebrating birthdays in January, just in case someone would like to send a card are: Mary Lizzie Hall, January 11, Mary Whipley, January 26, Thelma Wright, January 28, Eula Scott, January 28 and Martha Broderick, January 30.

MEETINGS

VFW 680 and Ladies Auxiliary, MOC and MOCA Auxiliary, held their annual Christmas party December 18 and 19 at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Leestown Road, Lexington.

On December 20 they entertained with a Christmas party for members and community children with Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus who was Nancy Hatterick, 10th district treasurer and supreme noma clown attending.

The Carlisle Community Woman's Club will meet Monday, January 12, 7:30 p.m. at the Old Depot. Mrs. Cle Schelling will give the spiritual values.

Henry Phillips, of the State office of Parents, Anonymous, Lexington, will be guest speaker.

1987 Reporting Period Real Estate - Intangibles

During January and February, everyone should report any type of change made to their property during the past year.

Maybe you added a bath or carport to your home, or you might have lost your home due to fire or storms. Maybe you moved and changed your address. Maybe you sold your mobile home. All of these changes and more should be reported so I can be sure that the value on your property is correct.

A taxpayer wishing to file for the Homestead Exemption or Agricultural Deferred Exemption should do so as soon as possible so it doesn't slip your mind until next year. Intangibles should be reported as soon as you have a complete listing. Stocks, bonds, mortgages, accounts receivable, etc. that are reported on your income tax should be reported here, too.

My office will be open until 4:30 p.m. on weekdays and 9:00 until 12:00 Saturday during January and February.

If these times are not convenient due to your work schedule, please call 289-5460 and arrange an appointment for your convenience.
