Hollar has many memories of life here

By Janis R. Dumas
of the Carlisle Mercury staff.
We have a homegrown philosopher...

September, that's the best month to be born in the weather is just right...

Another saying Hollar has is, "Business should be an enjoyment..."

He was a "Golf Grand Court" member for many years...

He moved his family to Carlisle in 1961 to "Stewart's Acres"...

Hollar began his September 25, 1913 on a farm on Crossed Creek Road...

His father was a school teacher and a farmer...

When he walked into the building after closing the door...

He attended Bartlesville High School...

The station was in the throes of a depression in 1931...

Hollar worked with his father on the farm until his death in 1939...

In 1934 the SA Farm Program started in the county...

He was elected a director of the Farm Bureau which started in the middle 1930s...

He remembers going to Southern States three-day convention in Clingman with the late Cleveland Clark...

In 1940 Lowell was magistrate from his district and was able to serve out his term...

He then ran in 1944 and was elected...

The Nicholas County Library was formed during his tenure...

The Nicholas County Hospital was built while Hollar was member of the fiscal court...

History and historical novels used to be his favorites...

He remembers in high school how he had to study in order to attend the good grades he desired...

G. C. says:

"Doc is gone, but memories and his presence lingers on."

I SUPPOSE THAT'S A SIGN OF READING MAJORITY WHEN WE REFLECT BACK OVER THE YEARS AND THINK OF THOSE WHOSE PRESENCE...

"I CAN ONLY SAY FOR MYSELF, DURING MY MOST FORTUNATE YEARS, MY STEPFATHER, J.E. 'DOC' BRADSHAW INFLUENCED MY LIFE MORE THAN ANY OTHER."

"I AM A MAN THAT LOVES TO READ AND INFLUENCE IN MY LIFE AS HE WAS FOR OTHER TEENAGERS INCLUDING ME. A MAN THAT ENJOINED ME TO FACE LIFE WITH MY LESS AS A FIGHTER...

"I AM A MAN THAT LOVES TO READ AND INFLUENCE IN MY LIFE AS HE WAS FOR OTHER TEENAGERS INCLUDING ME. A MAN THAT ENJOINED ME TO FACE LIFE WITH MY LESS AS A FIGHTER...
