Pioneers.....

Continued from Page 13

Betty Barton, Carlisle, is the present treasurer. She presented a check to Shirley Yoe, Nicholas County Senior Citizens director, who accepted the check in the amount of $150 on behalf of the senior.

Tom Tanker, corporate community affairs director for South Central Bell, also presented a check in the amount of $200 to Ms. Yoe.

Wanda Wiegand, Telephone Pioneer Administrator of Louisville, spoke to the group about Camp Blue Bird. It is for adult cancer patients present and past, and is located near Langsville. They are looking at an Otter Creek site.

St. Anthony's Hospital, near the camp, provides a medical staff for the camp of about 30 people.

They conduct three and one-half day sessions in October and in the spring.

The camp is sponsored by Chapter 32 of the Pioneers.

There is one other similar camp, sponsored by South Central Bell Pioneer Club, in the country and that is in Birmingham, Alabama.

There is the hope of the club that eventually there will be such camps all across.

The camp fee is $25. Inability to pay does not make a prospect ineligible to attend the camp. Any person in Kentucky or a neighboring state is eligible to attend.

The Pioneers are tackling a new problem in our society: drug abuse.

They are distributing tea shirts and badges in some school systems with slogans against drug abuse.

Besides Barton, local members of the Capital 2 Pioneers are Edith Kendall, Blanche Kenney, and Ethel Dewberry, who was not present at the meeting.

Guests of the Carlisle members were Madeline Hunt, Margaret Wade, and Janice Duncan.

The Capital 2 Pioneers Club includes the cities of Cynthiana, Georgetown, Carlisle, Mayville and Frankfort.
