Mrs. Gregory Curtsinger

Haney - Curtsinger are wed in Carlisle ceremony

Miss Dolinda Paige Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Haney and Gregory Lee Curtsinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garvey Curtsinger, all of Carlisle were united in marriage Saturday, May 16, at the Carlisle United Methodist Church. The Reverend Paul Cropper officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mary Catherine Knapke, was the organist and Brenda Lawrence, the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length Renaissance taffeta gown featuring a combination of Venise and Wedgewood lace. The bodice, designed with a neckline of English net, pearls, irradescent sequins, and lace medallions was complemented by a Castillion Cameo train with a Wedgewood lace bustle caught with a candy box bow.

The bride's hat was surrounded with Venise lace covered with pearls and sequins. Flowers and pearl strands adorned the upswept side of the hat. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias intermingled with sonia roses, stephanotis, and ivy foliage.

Beth Blair, Carlisle, was the maid of honor. She wore an apricot satin gown with basque bodice and shirred detail sleeves complemented in the back by a candy box bow and pick-up brush train.

She carried a bouquet of sonia roses and mini-carnations surrounded by baby's breath. Her headpiece was a halo of sonia roses, baby's breath, and satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids, in identical dresses to the maid of honor were Jo Ellen Jackson and Jennifer Hughes, friends of the bride and Lori Haney, cousin of the bride. Their bouquets and headpieces matched those of the maid of honor.

The flower girls, dressed identically to the bridesmaids were Amanda Ring and Sarah Curtsinger, nieces of the groom. They carried baskets of sonia rose petals.

Garvey Curtsinger, father of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Larry Curtsinger and Steve Curtsinger, brothers of the groom, Greg Haney, brother of the bride, Mark Duncan and Phil Weaver.

The ringbearer was Kyle Curtsinger, nephew of the groom.

Erin Weaver, niece of the groom, presided at the guest book.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall following the ceremony. Assisting at the reception were, Kay Wills and Lenore Anderson.

Mrs. Curtsinger is a graduate of Nicholas County High School.

Mrs. Margaret Ellen Duncon Tobin was a member of the 41st graduating class of Midway College, Midway on Saturday, May 16.

Commencement exercises were held at 2 p.m. in the Graves Amphitheatre on the college campus. Speaker for the ceremony was Dr. Lillalyce Akers who is a member of the board of trustees of Midway College, and director of the Sociology Department at the University of Louisville. She is also a former instructor at Midway.

Mrs. Tobin was one of 35 graduating nursing students who received an Associate of Arts Degree.

On Friday, May 15, Honors night was held in the Alumnae Chapel. Mrs. Tobin received a certificate of excellence in her clinical experience. There were only five of these certificates awarded.

Saturday at 11:30 a.m. in McMannis Student Center, the college recognized the nursing class with the Nursing Pinning Ceremony. Each student was pinned by family members of their choice. Mrs. Tobin was pinned by her mother, Mrs. Bobby Duncan, and her husband, Jeff.

Mrs. Tobin has accepted a position with Harrison Memorial Hospital in Cynthiana.
