From The Class of '87

Tonorrow's desires
Lesley Fryman - "Go to school and pursue a career in respiratory therapy, and in about five or ten years possibly have a nice home and child."

Mike A. Smith - "Go to vocational school to be a welder. Three to four years from now, be married, maybe."
John Tiers - "Go to Basic Training in New Jersey. Go into the Army in Maryland. Someday come back home to pursue a career in welding."
Steve Ledford - "Find a job. No plans for marriage. No plans for college."

Melissa Cox - "Go into the Army in Texas."
Esther Gilliam - "Go to vocational school and study to be a Nurse Aide. Five years hope to be married, have a steady job. Plan to live somewhere out of Carlisle."

Ron Beckerman - "Go to college in Missouri and play football. Plan to major in Agriculture."

Cherie Sturgeon - "I have no idea. Get a summer job. Ten years from now, work in a full time job. Possibly have a family."

Steve Kelley - "Work at B&B. Possibly take some hours at Mayville to see how I like it. Ten years from now, have a family and still work at the store, eventually take over."

From The Class President:

Perseverance has brought us all to this exciting point in our lives, graduation.

I'm sure that this same perseverance will lead the members of the Class of 1987 to great heights in the future.

I'd like to wish good luck to all my classmates, in whatever they do after graduation.

I'm sure you'll succeed in your own special and diverse way.

Lynn Reynolds Sr., Class President
