members, and several internationally and professionally perfected but have volunteered their talents to spend the entire week with the graduates.

Many forms of entertainment have been scheduled, such as music provided by Student Unions.

There will be a dining booth, a game room for chess and backgammon, darts, a Pin-Man machine, a sign-in booth, and volunteer booths.

The school system has provided transportation for the graduates to the Davis YMCA for recreation.

A picnic will be planned during the week with a table provided for transportation and there will be a picnic afterward for the graduates.

Mr. Linder and his staff will be glad to assist you in any way possible. We hope you will enjoy your stay at the school.
