Community Action holds program

Community Action held its annual volunteer recognition program May 14 at the Union County Government Ballroom.

Community Action relies on over 250 volunteers annually to insure the successful operation of its programs, particularly head start, energy assistance, and foodbank.

This year, Community Action instituted a new award, the Reverend H. H. Greese Service Award, to be given to an outstanding board member annually to honor the Reverend Greese's commitment and dedication to this agency.

In addition to presenting the Reverend Greese Award, the agency will honor the head start parents of the year - both home-

Four from NCHS advance to state meet

Nicholas County High School will have four representatives in the state track meet to be held May 30 in Lexington.

A quarter from the NCHS girls track team will make the trip to the state meet.

In order to advance to state competition, it took a tire or so and place finish in last weekend's sectional track meet held at Boyd County High School in western Kentucky.

Christie Russell, Michelle Gray, Tracy Haller and Christe Axlar will make the trip to UK.

Russell finished first in the 100 meter hurdles and second in the long jump.

Gray finished second in the 100 meter dash.

Axlar, Haller, Russell and Gray were on the NCHS 400 meter relay team, which finished second of the sectional.

Others from Nicholas County who scored points in the sectional, but failed to advance, were BOBBS: Frank Anderson, fourth 100 meter dash, Kevin Anderson, fourth, 110 meter high hurdles.

GRILLS: Nikki Smart, fourth, 1600 meter run; Christie Haller, fourth, 200 meter hurdles; 1600 meter relay team, sixth, Mattie Robinson, Hester, Braxton Wigglesworth, Smart.

Allen Hardin placed fourth in the shot put in the regional meet held at Boyd County, two weeks ago.
