Heather Mathes, who had a limited recreational budget with which to consult therapists for the month, was the coordinator.

Ken Uriga, the administrator of the line, and the new state law to have an activities coordinator at a resident health care facility and would I like the job. I was admittedly hesitant at first, but I thought of all the extra money I had spent with some of the things, she said.

Duncan was trained at seminars sponsored by the Kentucky Association of Health Care Facilities.

Churches and local organizations such as girl scouts also put on programs and the apital things for the residents. There are also special individuals that Duncan has trained kind of school held in Louisville. The second was a 12 hour advanced course.

"I'm glad to see one of the little snakes on the big wheel that runs this place. This is one of the most rewarding jobs that anyone could ever have," concluded Duncan.

According to state division of Forestry Director Donald A. Hearn, Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet, all cities are one of nature's most breathtaking productions. However, contrary to what many people believe, Jack Frost is not responsible for the color changes. Some leaves, he explains, begin to turn before we have any frost.

The Nicholas County Health Care Auxiliary Christmas Bazaar will be held on Saturday, December 3 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Park Building, corner of Main Street and Locust.

Pat Duncan has been honored by coaches and sports writers throughout the Commonwealth. Mike Kinney, a 1968 graduate of Nicholas County High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Kinney of the Stony Creek area, Route 3, is a freshman at Berry College, Mount Berry, Georgia.
