

Social Scene Manley — Wagoner are wed July 26

Miss Krista C. Manley, daughter of Mrs. July C. Turner, Cynthia and Wayne Manley, Carlisle and Thomas E. Wagoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wagoner, Millersburg, were married Sunday, July 26, at 8 p.m., at the Millersburg Christian Church. Reverend Tony Smith officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Jack Marie Paris of the organist.
Loretta Downing and Robbie Masada were the vocalists.
The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, Carroll Turner, wore a gown of antique satin with long pointed sleeves. Adorned with embroidered lace and pearls, it had a fitted low bodice and a semi-cathedral train. She wore a long length veil with veiled panels, lace and flowers. Her bouquet consisted of pink and lavender roses, mini carnations, vining silk lily, beaded pearls, and a large green ribbon decorating the center.
Miss Tammy Marshall, maid of honor, wore a full length gown of lavender satin with a lace bodice and of the shoulder sleeves. In her hair she wore a bouquet with a rose of satin and pearls from the bride's dress. Her bouquet was of mini carnations and lavender ribbon.
Miss Tammy Wagoner, sister of the groom, and Miss Treacy
