Dan, a sophomore horse student at Boyle County High School is a member of the Student Council, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the French Club, and is on the soccer and tennis teams.

He is the fifteen year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Mann of Danville and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Mann of Carlisle.

Mitchell - Smith wed

Kavanna Joyce Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Mitchell of Moorefield and Jesse Gordon Smith, son of Mrs. Donna Smith of Moorefield and Mrs. Jessie Smith of Sherburne, were united in marriage on July 16, 1988, at the Moorefield Methodist Church. The Reverend Roy C. Hunt officiated the ceremony.

The bride escorted by her father, wore a gown of white organza, fashioned with a fitted veil lace trimmed bodice encrusted with pearls, veil lace sleeves that extended to points at the wrist, a full skirt with a veil lace ruffia outlined with pearls, and chastity lace medallion extended to a chapel length train. She carried a silk bouquet of white and mauve roses, white carnations, baby's breath, and greenery, with white lace, and pearls and mauve ribbons and pearls streaming down.

Attending the guest book was Robin Massey, coak of the bride. The wedding music was provided by J.S. Wilson, Debbie Crump, sons of the groom, Patty Parks and Tammy Warner served at the reception.

Christina Purrell was the flower girl. She wore a dress and head piece identical to the bridemaid. Derek Thornburg, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

After a wedding trip to Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, the wedding will reside in Moorefield.

Dale wants to join famous ranks

Patrick Dale, a native of Carlisle, wants to join the ranks of the famous culinary masters who perform their delicious magic daily at some of the finest restaurants in the world.

Dale has enrolled in the culinary arts program at the National Center for Hospitality Studies at Sullivan College in Louisville, Kentucky.

The National Center offers students degrees in Culinary Arts, Hotel and Restaurant Management and Travel and Tourism.

While in the culinary program, the students will have earned an Associate Degree in Culinary Arts and three other culinary school diplomas.

After several months of initial training, they are placed in the cafeteria kitchens to prepare the daily meals that are served to the student body of the college.

The students are taught by a highly experienced, award-winning culinary staff.

The students have already won some impressive awards, including two gold medals and three silver medals at the National Restaurant Association's culinary competition.

They have earned an Associate Degree in Culinary Arts and three other culinary school diplomas.

Everything from learning and can offer.
