Allison named Paul Harris Fellow

The Carlisle Rotary Club named A. B. "Doc" Allison a Paul Harris Fellow at the annual Christmas meeting Dec. 15. Roger Womack, charter member of Carlisle Rotary, presented the award. Womack said, "This award honors Doc's lifetime of service above self in Rotary. Service above self is a principal all Rotarians live by." The Paul Harris award, named for the founder of Rotary, was presented because the local club contributed $1,000.00 to the National Rotary Foundation for the Polio Plus Campaign. Polio Plus is a Rotary International program to inoculate children throughout the world. Womack said Rotary members and their guests that Allison was honored for his outstanding attendance and service. Allison became a member of the Carlisle Rotary in 1947. Carlisle Rotary members previously named Paul Harris Fellows are Charles Cox and James Wells.

Saltwell News
By Mrs. Fred Holler

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stone have moved from the Johnson road to a house on the Black Cross road. We regret losing these neighbors.
Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Peck and children, Debbie and David were involved in a two car accident near the Bourbon Drive-in on Monday night. They were taken by ambulance to Bourbon General Hospital where they were treated and dismissed. Debbie was taken to University Hospital, Lexington, where severe stitches were taken and she plastic surgery from a deep cut on her forehead. She was dismissed and the car was all taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wilson, Lexington where they remained until Monday night and he accompanied her home. The others also received several bruises and minor injuries.
Brian Jackson and Cynthia Fryman attended a graduation at Louisville from Monday until Wednesday this past week.
Mrs. Hampton Paulsoner this past Monday to spend some time with her son Billy Paulsoner and son of P. A. Pierce, Florida.
J. R. Kenney and Scott Carlisle dined with Mrs. Mac Kenney and Lovell on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nichols and son and Janet Kenney and sons were also afternoon visitors.
The Rose Hill Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday evening that being, Miss Lisa Allen, and Danny Hobbs both of Nicholas County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jim Jackson, with Christmas colors were carried throughout. Reception followed in the fellowship room and a large group of relatives and friends attended.
Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Mattox and Amanda spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mattox.

This flower, was once identified as an amaryllis since this was the way the container was labeled. However once the flower bloomed, it was found to be a narcissus. Pictured here are those in Joan Spickler's class who kept record of the flowers' heights, reported at seven inches in one week!
