Dear Santa,
We really try to be good all the time, but sometimes we forget. Our teachers say that's normal for 4 to 5 year olds. We're working on improving our memory.

Our teacher has enclosed a list of Christmas wishes. Charly wants a pony; Roberto, crayons and coloring book; Beverly, a baby doll; Travis, a dog; Summa, a etch-a-sketch; Amanda would like a baby that grows hair; Jennifer, a Barbie doll; Matthew, crayon box; April wants a blue scooter; Darvin wants a reinder; Elizabeth, a T-ball set; Suzanne wants a baby doll; Robert just wants surprises. Zachary and Ashley want whatever you want to bring.

We will leave cookies and milk for you and hay and apples for the reinder.

Love,
Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Brown's Head Start Class

Dear Santa,
We have been good boys and girls. Our teacher has enclosed a list of Christmas wishes. We are 3 and 4 years old. Tina, bicycle; Jennifer, beach; Jacqueline, drum; Anthony, fire truck; Hope, Nory Bear; Amber, baby doll; Brandon, Bicycle; Peggy, telephone; Kennetha, skate board; Chris, train; Michelle W, toy Christmas tree; Erica, Christmas tree; Michelle R, skatie board; Michael, train; Lindsey, baby doll; Bethany, vacuum sweeper.

We will leave cookies and milk for you. We will also leave hay and apples for the reinder.

Love,
Mrs. McCarey's and Mrs. Clark's Head Start Class.

Good Will
May the meaning of Christmas enrich your lives with the spirit of peace on earth.

Santa arrives in Carlisle: is greeted by crowd

By Heather Mathes
Saturday, December 17, Santa Claus came to town. His primary stop was the Nicholas County Volunteer Fire Department, and many, many Carlisle children found out he was coming and headed him off at the pass.

"We only expected a little under 60 children and had that many candy bags and fire helmets," said Fire Chief Mark Hughes.

But they were soon to find out the estimated expectancy was considerably lower than the actual number. In other words, Santa drew a crowd, and the line of children that extended well into Crockett parking lot was not for grocery shopping.

"Over 200 Nicholas County children came to see Santa and we ran out of candy bags," said Hughes. "But we went over and got about $100 worth of candy from the store, and we already had plenty of fruit, so every child got a candy bag and helmet from Santa."

"Plus got to sit on his lap and tell him what all they wanted on Christmas morning."

However, Hughes warned that parents should not be alarmed if their child was not present when the jolly elf visited the first time.

Santa will be back, sliding down chimneys or crawling up front porches the night of December 24 and will visit the whole town of December 25. Now if the fire department could just figure out where he parked the sleigh when he was last here, he'd have to get those deer to fly.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Attention Santa

Every effort possible was made to reproduce letters exactly as sent.

Dear Santa,
My name is Cristy Snapp and I am in Miss Griffith's 1st grade this year. For Christmas I would like a Newborn Baby Boy, a Fashion Star Pilly, Cabbage Patch Yoddler, Little Miss Make-up, and a disk for my room.

Would you please leave the newborn baby boy doll at my Ma-Maw Wayne's house? Don't forget all my classmates at school and all my friends at the Day Care, my cousin, Olivia, my grand- parents, and something nice for my mom and dad.

We will have a snack for you under the tree.

Love,
Cristi Snapp

Dear Santa,
I want a Mary Ditty Dancing Original sound track tape and a Elvis Presley 18 number one hit tape. My sister wants a babydoll and a stuffed doggie.

Love,
Rebecca and Rachel Brower

Dear Santa,
My name is Nikita. I'm 5 years old. My mommy is helping me write this letter because I haven't learned how yet. I have been a pretty good girl this year.

I would like a new Barbie.

Season's Greetings
Warm wishes for the holiday season. May it glow with love and joy.

Class and the elves. Remember all my mamas' and Pappaw's aunts and uncles. Tell Rudolph Hi I will leave a treat by the tree.

Low,
Tammy

Dear Santa,
Hi again this year! My name is Chris Hunter. I am in Kindergarten this year. I have really tried to be a good boy but sometimes it's really hard for a 5 year old. For Christmas I would like for you to bring me a toy and a play school flash light. I also would like you to bring my little 2 years old sister Jenny Hunter a talking big bird and anything else you think she would like. Please remember all of the little boys and girls in my kindergarten class and especially Mrs. Bland and Mrs. Hamm.

I will leave some milk and cookies under my tree for you and Rudolph.

Love,
Chris and Jenny Hunter

P.S. Please remember all of my grandparents, cousins, aunts, and uncles.

Peace
Merry Christmas
