Local instructional leaders participate in program

Forty-five instructional leaders representing a group of 13 school district teams participated in the fourth Commonwealth Institute for Instructional Leaders program. Gerald Hammon of Carlisle was the spokesperson for the Nicholas team.

Other members of the Nicholas team were Gregory Bell and Bob Lane.

The program, a five day management seminar, was held June 27 through July 1 at the Harley Hotel in Lexington. IBM and Jarrico, two of Kentucky's leading corporations, were the co-sponsors of the program.

The objectives of the program are to create new perspective on management, enhance personal development, foster leadership, and develop networking.
