Reds holding tryouts

A tryout camp for baseball players will be conducted by the Cincinnati Reds on Friday, June 10, in Lexington, at the University of Kentucky Baseball Field. The camp is open to all boys from 16 to 22 years of age. High school sophomores and juniors are especially urged to attend. Reds scouting supervisor, Gene Bennett, will be in other equipment. In addition, each player will be responsible for his traveling and living expenses, if any, unless signed to a contract with Cincinnati Reds organization. Players must be 16 years of age to be eligible to participate and all American Legion players must bring written permission from their Post Commander or their Legion Coach in order to try out. Several of the players now playing baseball in the Major League today were first seen at tryout camps such as this one and many have seriously interested in playing professional baseball should make every effort to attend this camp.
