The Carlisle Mercury is beginning a new series of articles by William D. Cochran this week. Cochran is a native of Gillette, Ala., who has recently moved to Carlisle.

Heavy rainstorms hit parts of Carlisle and Nicholas County Monday night about 6:30, accompanied by lightning and winds. The downpours were scattered, hitting some areas, while a shower was scattered elsewhere. The downpours were scattered, hitting some areas, while a shower was scattered elsewhere.

John Earlywine, president of the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary, was judged the most outstanding president in Kentucky at the V.F.W. state convention held June 9-12 at the Hyatt Regency in Louisville.

Mr. Hazel Swartz, president of Nicholas County, was in a critical need of either newly constructed jail or extensive renovation of the existing facility.

BORN: Jimmy Allan Braden Douglas Hatton, Nicholas County, 4-H member, who attended 4-H Week on the campus of the University of Kentucky last week, returned Saturday with two blue ribbons and two red ribbons. Blue ribbon winners were Lillie Belle Alexander, Ellenville and Jimmy Judge.

Moorefield Red ribbon winners were Frances Rhoads-Smith, Ellenville, and Phyllis Cook, Nicholas County High School.
