Above, an unidentified Ohio driver was uninjured when her car dropped off the road on Kentucky 66, five miles north of Carlisle, Nicholas County. Firemen and ambulance personnel were called to the scene. Below, a truck owned by Billy Trencher was forced off the road, causing it to overturn in a two-vehicle accident on Moorefield Road, June 12. The accident caused milk to drain from the truck, which had to be washed from the road by NCFD members. The driver and passengers in the car, which according to a fire department report crossed the center line, along with the driver of the truck were not injured. — Hank Bond/Press.
