NCHS academic team

Concluded from Page 1 Junior National, our position at the high school, Lane said. Last night we had a ball game followed by a dance and those judges stayed until 4 a.m. to clean up for today's activities. I would also like to congratulate all the participants who acted like ladies and gentlemen. The most idea is more important than all the awards that you can receive, concluded Lane. Physics teacher said, I am forever grateful to those that made today a true regional effort. Bourbon County handled the program, Nicholas County the participants and Meigs located officials for today. Gaultie concluded. Individual awards in mathematics were, first, Brian Nummer, George Rogers Clark, and second, Aaron Cooper of Meigs. Social Studies were, first, Pat McGee, and second, Jeff Hopkins, both of Harrison. Science awards were, first, Ray Conley and second, Brent Donovan, both of Fleming. Language Arts were, first, Norman Witt, Bourbon, and second, Jane Brannon of Meigs. Nicholas girls lose hard-fought battle against Harrison

By Heather Mather On-Carlisle Mercury Staff Monday night, the Nicholas County Lady Jackets traveled to Harrison County for their first round district action, falling in the final quarter, 48-28. Nicholas came out strong and led on the boards several times, yet, the Harrison County Panthers came out on top after a tough final quarter, 48-28. Nicholas came out strong and led on the boards several times, yet, the Harrison County Panthers came out on top after a tough final quarter, 48-28.

On the defensive end, Nicholas broke out with a tough second and third quarter. Russell scored her first two with a drive through the lane and layup. To close the first quarter of first round action, Russell outlaid the fans as she drove up the middle and fed to the wing man, Tonya Moore. Nicholas closed the period with the lead, 18-8. Opening the second quarter, Russell took another accurate pass to the basket. After harkening by Angie Williams and Theresa Whitaker, Harrison up by one, 19-12, Nicholas retied time. Back in the game, Russell was fouled from behind during an attempted shot and played the strings, going two for two at the foul line.

Lady Jackets fall at Cats, 43-28

By Heather Mather On-Carlisle Mercury Staff Nicholas County girls played their last home game February 24 against Pendleton County, falling to the Wildcats, 43-28. Nicholas' Penny McConnell opened the contest with a short Courtney freshman, playing a big part as substitute in the dunking contest for her. Any chance, she had. With 4:28, Russell took another drive home for two more of her good high 14. Warner, acting as point man and primary scorer for her ability in assisting, penetrated to the basket. Russell closed out the third quarter with a short jumper from the corner of the key, Pendleton still on top, 30-25. Challenge scored first for the Wildcats with a field goal. Russell showed what she is all about with a steal from the Pendleton point and scrambled for a loose ball on the offense and of the most during two consecutive plays. Then, Rawlings hit first for Nicholas, with an assist by Warner. With 1:20 to play in the game, McConnell was substituted for Trussell. Trussell then set the game for her with a layup. McConnell went one for two at the line to close out the first half with Pendleton leading by 12, 24-11. Story Mills opened second quarter action with a long outside shot for the Wildcats. Russell returned and broke through the middle for the drive.

Rawlings followed by pulling down an offense rebound and putting up another blue two. Russell decided practice made perfect and went through the middle, 42-28.
