Class organizes newsletter

By Heather Mathes
 The 17 students in the class led and design a newsletter compiled by Nicholas County Administrator Betty Lynn Conrad from information provided by all departments of both schools. Although Brenda Day, Dorothy Wootley and Mary Truesdell are active in the production of the publication and responsible for the design and editing, it is a team effort. The newsletter is to be published on a monthly basis.

Those who perform the service are: Allen Creech, Scott Zoraw, Carl Wise, Darla Cook, Rebecca Foshick, Mia Price, Vicky Miller, Vicki Dooly, J.B. King, Bruce King, Darrin Morris, Lisa McCoy, Randy Jolly, Scott Loomis, Perry Feshback, Angie Henry, Andy Jolly and Dale Fawcett.

Spelling bee held at NCES

Winners announced

The local Courier-Journal Spelling Bee was held at the Nicholas County Elementary School on March 3, 1988.

The grade level winners who participated in the County Bee were Richard Moore (Grade 8), Melissa Manley (Grade 7), Jennifer Willoughby (Grade 6), and Maria Vise (Grade 5).

The county winner was Melissa Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Manley. The first runner-up was Maria Vise. The second runner-up went to Richard Moore, and the third runner-up was Jennifer Willoughby.

Melissa will go to Louisville April 4, 1988, to compete in the Courier-Journal Spelling Bee there. At Louisville, she will receive a $50 U.S. Savings Bond and a plaque for being a county winner.

The winner will get an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. to compete in the National Spelling Bee the week of May 30-June 4. One parent also gets to make the trip. The winner also wins a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Student of the week

Name: Allan Welch
 Age: 14
 Grade: freshman
 Parents: Wanda and Wendell Welch
 Extracurricular activities: FFA, baseball, farming
 Interests: cattle raising, country living
 Plans after high school: go to college, interest in agriculture

Reasons chosen by faculty: "I would like to nominate Allan because he gives an all-out effort in his classes. He is adapted well to the high school environment. He's a very well-mannered and pleasant individual," said one NCHS faculty member.

Phyllis Ramsey and Robbi Barr's seventh grade environment classes are studying the state of Kentucky. The students participated in a contest to design a T-shirt for the state. Winners are Angie Hall, first; Erin Weaver, second; and Tammy Cline, third. -Chy Miller Photo
