General Assembly 1988 WRAP-UP

Members of the Kentucky General Assembly have introduced a total of 1,429 pieces of legislation for consideration during the 1988 session.

Two years ago, 1,388 bills were introduced, 599 in the House and 268 in the Senate. In the House of Representatives, 1,030 bills are currently under consideration while the Senate has 269 measures before it. The deadline for filing new legislation in both chambers passed last week.

In 1986, a total of 482 bills passed both houses and 461 became law. Former Gov. Martha Layne Collins vetoed two bills, one of which was overridden by the Legislature.

Only 16 working days - spread over four weeks - remain in the 1988 session, which ends March 30. March 29-30 are set aside for concurrent only. Following a 10-day recess, the General Assembly will return to Frankfort April 14-15 to consider any vetoed legislation.

The General Assembly's toll-free telephone numbers will remain in operation throughout the session. To leave a message for a legislator, call 1-800-273-7181. To check the status of a bill, call 1-800-248-6132.
