Jackets take six straight, improve mark to 15-6

Nicholas County's baseball team ran off six straight wins to push its record to 15-6 through games played last week.

Play began with Bath County as the Jackets plated six runs in the bottom of the first, added two in the base half of the fourth and went on to claim an 8-2 win.

John Wagoner was the winning pitcher, improving to 3-2.

Tip Fryman had three hits for the winners, while Andy Anderson had two base hits.

Andy Anderson saw his season's mark improve to 3-1, as he led the Jackets to a 17-9 marathon win over Bourbon County.

The Jackets notched eight runs in the top of the second inning and never trailed in the game.

The Colonels stayed in the game with five runs in the home half of the third, but NCHS poured in on with three in the sixth and six in the seventh.

The Jackets pounded out 13 hits, but committed five errors.

Fryman, Anderson and William Workman each had two hits.

Nicholas continued its winning ways with a 6-2 win over Menifee County, in the first half of a road doubleheaders.

Nicholas County jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first, allowed Menifee to tie the game with one in the home half of the second, but the Jackets picked up three in the top of third and went on for the win.

Rodney Hedges had two hits, while Workman and Wagoner collected two rbis, each.

Fryman collected the win for NCHS, improving his season's mark to 4-1.

In the nightcap, NCHS wiped out a 2-1 Menifee lead with eight runs in the top of third inning, enroute to a 9-4 win in five innings.

Nicholas County was led by Fryman with two hits, two rbis, plus a home run. Wagoner accounted for three rbis.

Rodney Hedges picked up the win. His season's mark is now 2-0.

NCHS bested Sayre on the road with four in the top of the first and two in the third on the way to a 13-3 drubbing.

Todd Day picked up the win to even his mark to 2-2, while sending 14 Sayre players to the bench with strikeouts.

It was a big game for Scot Allison, who had five hits and seven rbis.

Fryman and Workman had two hits each.

Junior Jackets finish second in tourney

In Regional tilts

Nicholas County's junior varsity baseball team came in second in the regional tournament held at Montgomery County, last weekend.

The Jackets edged by host Montgomery County, 8-7, in their first game.

The junior Indians jumped out to a 6-0 lead, but three runs in the bottom of the fourth, four in the bottom of the fifth and a tie-breaking run in the bottom of the eighth gave the Jackets the win.

Rodney Hedges, Travis Sims and David Siebert had two hits each in the win.

The Jackets also moved by Clark County posting a 6-4 win.

Nicholas scored once in the bottom of the first, in the third, fourth and three in the bottom of the sixth to take the win.

Rodney Hedges had two hits, while Kevin Morris also had two his for the Jackets.

In the championship game Nicholas fell to Bourbon County 10-0.

"We used a lot of young players, some from the eighth grade, and I felt we made a good showing with these young people," NCHS Coach Billy Anderson said.

"We should have a good team for several years, with the type players we have in the lower grades," he added.

10th Region honors given to NCHS players
