Upon graduation, many students are nervous about the new experiences that going to MSU awards 482 degrees

MORHEAD, Ky. (AP) - Former Kentucky Governor Louis B. Nunn told about 5,000 people attending the Memorial State University graduation Saturday that teachers do not only come from the class.

college may bring.
He said everyone is a teacher whether it be in the classroom or in daily life.

Each representative was among the top five percent of his or her class.
The freshmen class members participating were Debbie Peck, Julie Hamilton, Andrea Hall, Robak Crawford and Todd Wilson.

The junior class participants were Erin Mathews, Pam Leonard, Mary Susan Dotson, Kathleen Judge and Michelle Havens.

The seniors who attended the trip were Ronda Smart, Lisa Moss, Shawn Tusey and Eric Tedder.

All members of the fifth and sixth grade hand-puck to entertain the crowd at the Nicholas County Band Concert which preceded a hot-luck banquet held in the NCHS cafeteria.

After lunch, they walked back to the 'Red Room' where they were talked to by the admissions director who explained the admissions process and exactly what a liberal arts school such as Centre offered.

At the end of the formal trip, the students were allowed to go to the college book store and purchase souvenirs.

Can you name five things?
Can you name three things?
Can you name just one thing that the 1988 General Assembly passed that affected you personally?

Now they are going to meet again (in a special session) at the expense of the taxpayer to do what they should have done in January and February. We need ACTION not committee work.

It is time for a change?
74th District State Representative
Elect Julian R. Cunningham
