JACK LENZ

My life has been rich and full. Thanks for being a loving son. Take that smile you have and go out in this big world and make every one you meet glad they have a friend like you.
Love, Mom

GINGER WAGGONER

During the last 18 years, I have watched you grow from a baby, through adolescence, into a young lady. May you continue to grow and prosper, but most of all may you be happy.
Love, Mother

DONNA MCCORD

Congratulations, Donna! We're proud of you! Good luck in College!

To Our Special Senior Carol Bond Class of '88

I wish you good health and much happiness. I hope you have inherited your father's and mother's drive and ambition.

Love,
Granny

Congratulations to my dear niece of whom I am very proud.

Much love,
Auntie

Best wishes on your graduation day and always. Behind you are many things well done, before you are many dreams to follow, and beside you will always be the love that is yours today.

Love,
Grandma, Grandpa,
and Connie

A few fleeting moments have come and gone, and now it's time for you to go on your own.

For 17 years you've helped us grow, all the while we've tried to show, life's many paths are there to choose.

You've made us proud to be your folks ...walk with you... and talk with you—just to know you.

You've shared your life...with Beth, Amy and Michael, too. A part of their lives you'll always be.

From town to town you've moved with us...packed the stuff...and loaded, too! All the while, we had our test, our lives were blessed because of you.

You've made us proud, you'll walk the stage, dressed in white into the night. It's a great big step in your young life, but one we know you can make.

You were the first to bring us joy, a little smile, our little girl...You now have grown and you should know our love for you will always grow.

Our darling Carol it's not goodbye but a brand new way to say hello.

You paid the price and earned your place and now, our love, it's time for you to go.

Love,
Mom and Dad
