Louisville.

He has been an elementary school principal, has had a teaching fellowship at Oklahoma State University, and is the author of several books and publications.

Dr. Hood is presently an assistant professor of History at Georgetown College and is married with three children. Superintendent of Nicholas County Schools, Donald Elder and Principal Greg Reid will present the diplomas to the graduating class.

After the benediction is given by Gretchen Judge of the Class of '89, the graduates will file out to the Receptional. As with most graduations, tears of pride and joy will shine on many Mother's faces as well as those of friends, relatives and faculty who feel proud of their graduates but in the same vent, and to see them leaving to embark on a completely new adventure.

ALL RIGHT!

Congratulations, Class of 1988. Your achievements are a credit to your school and community.
