CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank the Nicholas County Fire Department for their help with the fire at our site. If it hadn't been for your untiring effort we could have lost a barn full of tobacco. A special thanks to those on the department who spent the night keeping watch. Renee and Rose Wayne Smoot. 11/17/1*

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their prayers, visits, cards, flowers, food and phone calls during the loss of our loved one. May God bless each and everyone. Faye Rawlings and Mary Byrd. 11/17/1*

We would like to express our thanks to all who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father. Also to all who sent beautiful flowers, food, cards and calls. One never knows how much it helps until it comes to us. Our thanks to the pallbearers, honorary bearers, also Dr. Henry Hanna for a beautiful service and Mathers-Gaunce for doing such a beautiful funeral. Badger Hovermale Family. 11/17/1*

The family of Allie Clinkenbeard wish to thank each and everyone for the many cards, flowers, food and moneys for the memorial fund of First Christian Church. Also Dr. Hanna, the nursing staff and also our many friends who showed such kindness and care. Your loving concern during our bereavement was marvelous. His family. 11/17/1*

Homemakers Notes

Moorefield Homemakers

The Moorefield Homemakers Club met November 3, at the home of Sandra Durham. Mrs. Lucille Clark, president, called the meeting to order and the devotion was given by Mrs. Lois Ham. Minutes from the last meeting were read and approved and roll call was read, members answering by telling the first Thanksgiving they remember.

Mrs. Clark,once again, reminded all members , dues should be paid by December 1. The Bloodmobile will be in Carlisle November 28 and we were urged to participate if possible.

Various Christmas projects were discussed and the club voted to give $25 to Eastern State Hospital.

Mrs Marjorie Wilson gave a mini-lesson, Preserving Herbs and Spices in the microwave oven.

The club elected Michelle Skidmore to be the new scrapbook leader.

Phamplets pertaining to microwave baking and convectional baking, fire safety tips and dental hygiene were passed out. Also, everyone was reminded to water trees and shrubs thoroughly and deeply until the first hard freeze.

Charlotte Snapp gave the monthly lesson entitled "Estate Planning and Wills". Living wills were discussed. Members were urged to have a will written if they had not already.

Lois Ham led in recreation and refreshments were served to 11 members. Gifts were opened by those with birthdays and anniversaries.

The December meeting will be at the home e of Mrs. Brenda Lawrence.

The Headquarters Homemakers met November 1 at the home of Ruth Hollar with Betsy Cleaver as co-hostess.

Roll call was answered by by telling the first Thanksgiving you can remember. There were 15 members present with Sandra Boone and Bernice Platt as guest.

The minutes of the last meeting were and approved. Hazel Moore gave the treasurer's report.

Marge Burnaw gave the Family Life lesson. Diana Gibbs gave a very interesting lesson in estate planning, including information on wills and deeds.

Our club is to help serve for the bloodmobile, November 28.

Our December meeting will be at the 19th Hole of Carnico. We will meet in front of Gladys Duncan's at 10:15. There will be a gift exchange.

The meeting was adjurned.

Miranda Homemakers

The Miranda Homemakers Club met November 9, 7:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Chris Booth. Frances Taylor presided.

Devotional was given by Margaret Wade, Philippians, 4:6 followed by a short prayer.

Roll call was answered by Doing What You Can Where You Are and With What You Have, all members answered by telling about their first Thanksgiving that they remember.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was given.

Family Life leaflets, on step-families and the holidays, were given out by Alma Atkinson. Lesson on wills and estate planning was given by Madelina Hunt, this was a very important lesson. Everyone learned a lot about where to put important papers and to always make a will.

We planned our Christmas project. After the meeting refreshments were served to 16 members.

Next meeting is our Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Wanda Welch at 2:00 p.m. Please bring a Christmas gift to exchange with other members.

Also the bloodmobile is November 28 at the Christian Church. Miranda Homemakers is in charge of food.
