Nicholas County well represented in Special Olympics Bowling Tournament

Area 8 Special Olympics bowling tournament was held at Joyland Bowl Lexington, Ky. October 29th. As always our athletes did well. We had some new bowlers who did a great job. We are proud of all of our athletes. We are especially proud of Scottie Zornas who won the tournament with an average of 72. Scottie Zornas is a member of the new group: Nicholas County Special Olympics Adult Population (Nicholas County S.O.A.P. for Short). Mrs. Marilyn Sams a Special Olympic volunteer is in charge of this group. Two adults Ricky Bretz and Cindy Cox attended the bowling tournament Saturday, October 22 at Joyland Bowl in Lexington, Ky. They both received 3rd place ribbons. Mrs. Phyllis Cox is one of the coaches. Area 8 bowling tournament October 22, 1988 in Lexington at Joyland Bowl age 22 and up. Athletes: Cindy Cox 3rd place, Ricky Bretz 3rd place.
