Use caution when campaigning

It's election time, and campaign signs are popping up everywhere. But it's illegal and dangerous to post signs on utility poles, according to John Burke, manager for Kentucky Utilities Company at Carlisle.

"Posters and signs create special problems for KU line technicians when they have to climb poles," he said.

"The signs can make the employee's climbing more difficult, causing a fall. He added that the nails, tacks and staples that remain after tarian Church, thought the church would be according to her research.

At one time, perhaps four to six thousand people gathered at the Old Concord Church for the revivals that culminated in the revivals at Cave Ridge that hosted 20,000. Hopefully, she said, these people left behind remnants of their stay. The dig turned up about 20 items, which Metzger hoped to

NOTICE

The Nicholas County Board of Elections will examine the voting machines for use in the November General Election to be held Tuesday, November 8, 1988, on Tuesday, October 25, 1988 at 9:30 a.m. to see if the requirements of KRS 117.165 have been met. Any candidate and one representative of each political party having candidates to be voted for at the election may be present when the examination of the machines is made.

Money Matters
A Series Of Informative "Plain Talk" Thoughts Regarding Your Money Matters

Prime Rate

On occasion a customer will ask me what is that one percent rate in higher than the prime rate that is often referred to as the "prime rate"?

The answer is in the rate that Big City Bank offer to larger corporate customers such as Standard Oil of Ohio. Prime rate is usually given to these customers for very short term loans.

Our lending rate are determined by the "prime rate" of the bank. When the prime rate goes up or down, and vice versa.
