MSU, Murray drop openers

Some of Kentucky's college football teams flunked their first test of the season, with the losers including Morehead and Murray State.

Morehead was defeated by 10th-ranked Marshall 30-17 in a driving rainstorm that contributed to dropped passes and fumbles.

Ron Darby rushed for 154 yards and one touchdown as Marshall wore down Morehead State in the second half for a 30-17 victory Saturday in the season-opener for both teams.

Marshall led just 16-10 when Darby scored on an 18-yard run with 9:26 left in the game to give the Thundering Herd an insurmountable 23-10 advantage.

The two teams then traded touchdowns for the final margin.

Morehead State controlled the first half on the field, out gaining Marshall 168-151 in total offense, but found itself tied at 10-10 on the scoreboard.

Morehead State had a golden opportunity to put the game away in the second quarter, leading 10-3 and facing a third-down-and-goal on the Marshall 4-yard line. But quarterback Chris Swarts' pass was intercepted in the end zone by Stanley Hall, killing the drive.

Playing at home, Murray State could not cope with Tennessee-Martin's passing attack and lost 32-24.

In other games Saturday, Georgetown held off Union 19-13 and Kentucky State dropped a 20-14 decision to Austin Peay.

Second half mistakes doomed the Louisville Cardinals, who were victimized by Maryland 27-16.

Tennessee-Martin was led by Leon Reed, who threw for 230 yards and two touchdowns against Murray State.

A penalty late in the four quarter ended Union's hopes for an upset over Georgetown, ninth-ranked in Division II of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The penalty put Georgetown on Union's 18 with just over two minutes to play. Georgetown sent star halfback Mitch Winburn on a 12-yard run for the winning touchdown.

Despite the loss, Union Coach Matt Ballard said he was proud of his team.

"We've come 10,000 miles since day one, when we couldn't even line up and call a play."

Ballard's team contains more than 50 percent freshmen and only six seniors.

Bill Desmond passed for 172 yards and a touchdown to Rico Ransom to boost Austin Peay to a 20-14 non-conference win Saturday night over Kentucky State.

It was the season opener for both teams.

Austin Peay led 17-0 at intermission

Kentucky State, an independent team, came back in the third quarter with a 25-yard touchdown pass from Martin to Jon Brown.
