Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Storey entertains with a family dinner at their home on Saturday, December 16. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Day and Todd, Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Shannon and Gregory of Millersburg, David Tinley, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Shannon of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Trap, Dana and Amy Mathis, Gary, Marlene and Sarah Storey, Paul Storey and Edward Hadden, all of Lexington. Everyone enjoyed the good meal and time of fellowship.

Because of the bad weather the Headquarters Christmas program was given on Sunday morning following the Sunday school hour. Mrs. Ollie Brown, returned home Thursday after a week's treatment at Nicholas County Hospital. She was also in Lexington on Thursday to consult with a doctor up there.

Daley and Martha Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blakeman and Dana and Lisa Cope of Lexington, enjoyed a birthday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Milroy, also of Lexington for Mrs. Milroy's mother, Mrs. Blakeman. Our community extends sympathy to the families of Mr. Raymond Hawkins, Mrs. Fannie Mae Anderson, who passed away this past week at Johnson Mathey San Reynolds and family attended the beautiful 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Livingston and others of her family in

Thousands travel and singing holiday songs

Thousands of Kentuckians traveled "over the river and through the woods" to Lexington last night to participate in the 2nd Annual Kentucky Christmas Chorus at Rupp Arena. In celebration of the holiday season, the group sang traditional Christmas carols and enjoyed solo performances by Melissa Barber, Debbie Pamphrey and The Lexington Singers.

The Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra accompanied the singers in the 90-minute chaffee, which was sponsored by the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government, WFTV-TV of Lexington and WYMT-TV of Hazard, in cooperation with the Lexington Arts and Cultural Council.

We wish to insure good things for your holiday happiness.

COMMUNITY

Blood drive results

On December 17, 37 people donated blood at the National Guard Armory in Carlisle. The drive was sponsored by Central Kentucky Blood Center and the Company D 201st Engineer Branch. Contributing to the successful drive was Sergeant Jim Galbraith who served as chairperson for the drive. The Nicholas County Blood Program is greatly aided by the community support of Company D 201st Engineer Branch. The next Nicholas County blood drive has been scheduled for Monday, January 15, 1990 at the Nicholas County Hospital.

HOMEMAKERS

The Maersfield Homemakers met Thursday, December 7 at the home of Mrs. Brenda Lawrence. Mrs. Elizabeth Hamlin, president, called the meeting to order and Lois Hamm read the roll with members answering to their favorite Christmas tradition. Lois Hamm also read the minutes from the November meeting. Members were informed of the National Headquarters to be located in Burlington, Ky. Each homemaker is invited to tour the new headquarters at sometime in the future.
