GENERAL NEWS

A look at 1989

Continued from Page 1

named chairman.

Bourbon County High School Colonels stop the Nicholas County Bluejackets by a score of 80-60.

Thursday, January 19, 1989

Cindy Clark was crowned queen of winter homecoming at Nicholas County High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.K. Clark and was escorted by Chris Knapke. Cindy replaces Ginger Wagoner the 1988 homecoming queen.

The Nicholas County School system has been awarded a $47,004 grant to help prevent students in two age groups from dropping out of school. The grant was awarded by the Job Training Partnership Act Council.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Ronnie Berry. Ronnie is 16-years-old and a junior at NCHS. He is the son of Sherman and Mary Evans. His extra-curricular activities include band and chess club. His interests are music and basketball. His plans after school are to go to college and major in music. Reason chosen by the faculty is because he is cooperative, friendly and a good citizen.

DIED: Keller Morris, 76, January 11, 1989; Elizabeth Sue Thomas Prather, 82, January 9, 1989; Harold Stone Robinson, 87, January 12, 1989; Carter DeWayne Minton, 4 1/2 months old, January 12, 1989; Frances A. Turpin, 78, January 14, 1989; Mrs. Mattie Rigg Archer, 86, January 8, 1989.

Thursday, January 26, 1989

Superintendent Donald Elder said that Nicholas County School buses are checked twice a year for proper safety steps.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Deeana Fryman. Deeana is 17 years old and a junior. She is the the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie and Tom Fryman. Her extra-curricular activities include, cheerleading, secretary/ treasurer student council, governor's cup, science fair. Her plans after high school are to go to college and major in Bio-Medicine. The reasons she was chosen was of her outgoing pleasant personality, good student, courteous and dependable.

MARRIED: Christel Ann Russell and Robert Todd Reid, December 31, 1988.

DIED: Janet Lois Morris, 45, January 17, 1989; Chester Lee Stone, 89, January 19, 1989; Webb Lail, 97, January 18, 1989; Raymond Burke, 69, January 23, 1989; L. Niel Plummer, 83, Lexington

FEBRUARY

Thursday, February 2, 1989

Sometime between midnight and 5 a.m. Monday morning, one or more persons entered Carlisle Drug on Main Street by breaking out the front door.

A 1987 Dodge pickup driven by Derwin Lee Howard of Carlisle collided with a 1970 International Fire Truck, which was responding to a fire, driven by Matthew Hughes of Carlisle. The accident occurred on at the intersection of Main and Broadway.

Kentucky State Trooper and 20 year veteran, James Dolwick is handling the D.A.R.E. program for the Nicholas County Schools.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Heather Hall. Heather is 16 years old and a junior at Nicholas County High School. She is the daughter of John and Boogie Hall. Her extra-curricular activities include academic team, cheerleading, science fair, and Governor's Cup. Her interests include, athletics, church, family, and reading; Plans after school is to do medical research, biotechnology; Reasons she was chosen was she is responsible and dependable. Cooperative with teachers. Untiring when it comes to hard work. High level of integrity. "Heather is a challenge and pleasure to have in class," said one faculty member.

DIED: Janet Lois Morris, 45, January 17, 1989; Mrs. Louise Ebert, January 30, 1989; Maggie Belle Bowles, 76, January 26, 1989; Raymond Burke, 69, January 23,1989.

Thursday, February 9, 1989

A fire of undetermined origin swept through Wiley's Place in Myers Station, Saturday night.

Nicholas County Fiscal Court revised the county's personnel policy to allow two weeks vacation after five years of service and three weeks vacation after 10 years.

Kentucky Utilities Company will have a power interruption Saturday, February 11, 12 midnight.

Sometime during the night Saturday night- Sunday morning vandals broke a front window at Pic-Pac, and apparently during the same time frame broke the drive up window at Talk of the Town restaurant. Nothing was taken according to the business owners. Earlier in the week, one or more individuals broke into Snapp's Standard on West Main. According to station owner Jim Snapp about $500 worth of goods were taken. Entry was apparently gained by breaking a window.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Amy Simons. Amy is sixteen years old and the daughter of Jim and Linda Simons. Her extra-curricular activities include basketball, student council, drama club, academic team; interests are reading, sports; plans after high school, college, medical school; reason chosen by faculty, personable, reliable, dependable. An asset to any class.

BORN: Jesse James Mitchell, February 1, 1989, Brittani Marie Dale, January 30,1989.

DIED: Edward (Tommy) Booth, 61, January 31, 1989; Alma Christine Hilander, 74, February 2, 1989; Marie H. Adams, 71, February 4, 1989.

Thursday, February 16, 1989

Tonya McCarty, senior at Nicholas County High School and daughter of Mrs. Patty Hatton of Carlisle and Gene A. McCarty of Carrollton was selected 1988 Football Homecoming Queen. McCarty has also been chosen finalist for Kentucky's ninth annual homecoming queen selection to be held April 8 and 9 at the Executive Inn in Louisville.

Donald "Brownie" Hollar appeared before City Council Monday night requesting approval of a liquor by the drink license for a restaurant he will operated on his Spring Street property.

The Nicholas County Board of Education voted to eliminate the valedictorian and salutatorian titles from graduation ceremony beginning the 1989-90 school year.

After hearing a first reading of a sewer rate increase ordinance at a special called meeting of the Carlisle City Council heard and approved an ordinance increasing the sewer rate charges for the City of Carlisle to a minimum of $6.35.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Teresa Oakley. Teresa is seventeen years old and the daughter of Ronald and Nancy Cook. Teresa is a junior at NCHS. Her extra-curricular activities include, drama, student council, french club, ecology club, TLC; interests, reading, family, and friends; plans after high school, college, study medicine; reason chosen by faculty, dependable, cooperative, friendly, a pleasure to have in class and to work with in extra-curricular activities.

BORN: Troy Allen Byrd, February 8, 1989.

DIED: Oliver Kash Curry, 79, February 9, 1989; William Shirl Sidles, February 6, 1989.

Thursday, February 23, 1989

After months of planning and working toward attraction of an industrial prospect, members of the Carlisle-Nicholas County Industrial Authority appear to be moving ahead.

Nicholas County residents faced high water and closed road signed in many portions of the county during last week's flooding. While the water has gone down for the time being, weather forecasters are calling for more rain this week.

The Nicholas County Elementary project of Focus, under the direction of Phyllis Guthrie has received a grant of $345 from the Kentucky Education Foundation, Inc.

Nicholas County Student of the Week is Erin Mathes. Erin is seventeen years old, a senior, and the daughter of Bill and Faye Mathes; extra-curricular activities include captain varsity team basketball, band, national honor society, and 4-H; interests, plays piano, reads, watching T.V., babysitting; plans after high school, college, undecided; reasons chosen by faculty, for her maturity, stability and overall positive attitude. A very pleasant well mannered young lady.

BORN: Mary Elizabeth Mattox, February 14, 1989; Zachariah Andrew Taylor, February 17, 1989.

MARRIED: Deborah J. Hughes and Richard I. Seet, February 11, 1989.

DIED: Robert L. Himes Jr., 35, February 13, 1989; Marie H. Adams, 71, February 4, 1989.

MARCH

Thursday, March 2, 1989

Kentucky State Police Trooper Timothy Layne, 31, has been assigned to Nicholas County. Layne is a five-year veteran of the Kentucky State Police.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed an unoccupied home on Kimes Lane owned by Houston Watkins. The house, which also sustained damage from recent flooding, was filled with flames when the fire fighters arrived.

Trooper Kenneth Jones assigned to Nicholas County received the award for Best Care of State Owned Equipment at the recognition of achievements officers obtained at Post 6.

BORN: Eric Dean Willoughby, February 25, 1989.

DIED: Carl Thomas Gillispie, 86, Wednesday, February 22, 1989; Roy E. Curtis, 55, February 23, 1989; Betty Browning Humphries, 58, February 24, 1989; Thomas Edward Asbury, 73, February 24, 1989; Jewell G. Hughes Estes, 61, February 5, 1989; Edythe Morgan Rich, 71, February 27, 1989.

Thursday, March 9, 1989

One or more robbers entered Hopkins Drug on Main Street in Carlisle, sometime early Sunday morning. Entry was gained by breaking a front window.

Citing an overall decline in hospital census over the past two to three years, Nicholas County Hospital Administrator Robert Hester has requested some changes.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held February 28, for the City of Carlisle's sewer project. Breaking ground for the project are Gene Kelley, Mayor Lee Bentz, Charlie Fay, Carty Lester, Jim Brown, John Dykes, and Gayle Vanlandingham.

Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce held its annual meeting, Saturday. Chamber members elected to a new board of directors are Rob Hester, president; Debbie France, Brenda Rector, Greg Wills, Carol Sparks, Ernie Jones, Doug Garrett, vice-president and Jeff Tryer.

Student of the week at Nicholas County High School is Joshua Guthrie, 17, and a junior at NCHS. He is the son of Bill and Phyllis Guthrie. He was selected because he is an assest to our school especially when it comes to representation at academic activities. Shows considerable wit and humor.

N.C.H.S. drama club will present for their spring play, "Where the Lilies Bloom."

BORN: Jessica Beth Vaughn, February 24, 1989.

Thursday, March 16, 1989

Foodtown and Pic-Pac in Nicholas County removed all Chilean fresh fruit from their shelves Monday morning because it may have contained small traces of cyanide.

Tom Hensley has proposed a new farm program to help independent farm families survive in today's market.

BORN: David Rankin Livingood, February 11, 1989; Emily Aris Martin, February 26, 1989.

MARRIED: Susan Michelle Murrell and Gene Rose, February 25, 1989.

DIED: Powell Vice Neal, 71, March 14, 1989; Mildred Gaunce Marshall, 64, Saturday; Pauline Flora, 66, Friday; James Martin Bussell, 63, March 7, 1989.

Thursday, March 23, 1989

Units from Carlisle Fire Department and Nicholas County Fire Department along with Carlisle City Police, Nicholas County Ambulance personnel, Kentucky State Police, and Nicholas County DES responded to a fire inside the flaming building causes the evacuation of over 300 on Sunday morning.

Two Carlisle men were arrested after being discovered inside Wells Produce after an apparent break-in.

DIED: James Reynolds Eads, 74, March 17, 1989; Ida Mae George, 95, March 14, 1989; Marjorie Dallas Dotson, 79, March 21, 1989.

Thursday, March 30, 1989

Liquor ordinance passed at special meeting Friday by a vote of 3-2-1, for the City of Carlisle.

Lesley May Duncan, 20, a sophomore at Morehead State University took part in the Miss MSU pageant last week.

Carlisle Mayor Lee Bentz did not sign the drink ordinance passed by Carlisle Council last Friday, but vetos the council's action.

Sarah Blount has been nominated for Bank One Scholarship in conjunction with WKYT-TV.

NCHS student of the week is Chris Knapke, 17, senior. Chris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Knapke. He was chosen because he is outgoing, pleasant personality, dependable, honest and loyal.

BORN: David King Musick, March 15, 1989; Kisha Nichole Woosley, March 15, 1989.

DIED: Commander Noble T. Hawkins, March 26, 1989.

APRIL

Thursday, April 6, 1989

Following mayor's veto of ordinance Robert Paul and Donald "Brownie" Hollar retaining legal council.

Kentucky State Police Trooper James Dolwick who is teaching a 17 week course on the D.A.R.E. program to sixth grades at Nicholas County Elementary spoke to the Nicholas County Elementary P.T.A.

Ruth Hbuse Kingsolver celebrated her 88th birthday, March 23, with a celebrate at Jewelry Patch in Carlisle.

Representative Adrain Arnold (D- Mt. Sterling) has represented district 74 of Kentucky for 16 years, so far.

BORN: Jeremy Preston Feeback, March 25, 1989; Christopher Dale Caskey, February 26, 1989.

DIED: Ann E. Feeback, 88, April 3, 1989.

Thursday, April 13, 1989

Carlisle City Council fails to override veto of liquor by the drink ordinance by a vote of 3-2-1.

The Carlisle Mercury captures 21 awards in the Spring Kentucky Weekly Newspaper Association contest.

Joe B. Hall speaks at the Men's Prayer breakfast hosted by the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Less than two months after being appointed to Carlisle City Council, Carol A. Power has resigned. The resignation is effective April 10, 1989.

The Class of 1989 Senior take their senior trip to Chicago.

James Hill, Jeff Dale and Frankie Johnson signed their letters for prospective colleges with Head Coach Robbie Barr. Hill and Dale were recruited by Turkio College in Missouri and Johnson to Kentucky State University.

MARRIED: Fadi Koury and Paul Kenneth Lester, January 28, 1989.

DIED: Warren A. Ritchie, 60, April 3, 1989; Raymond Rye Shrout, 79, April 10, 1989.

Thursday, April 20, 1989

Tuesday at about 2:30 p.m. A.E. and Leona Kerns were inside Kern's Gas and Grocery on Moorefield road when A.E. saw a red ton Ford pickup hit his gas pumps, driving them off where they stand, then drove back the way it came, off toward Moorefield.

Robert Hester, administrator for the Nicholas County Hospital, has paid for an external pacemaker with a large donation from the Community Women's Club.

DIED: Sylvester "Mac" McIntosh, 56, April 14, 1989; James Adam Baker, 77, April 14, 1989; Mrs. Betty Gaunce, 95, April 17, 1989.

Thursday, April 17, 1989

Carlisle approved for Main Street Program.

NCHS students Heather Hall, Gretchen Judge, Deanna Fryman win big at MSU Science Fair. Hall was the overall winner while Judge took third and Fryman fourth.

Morehead State University students stalk the campus with a protest to poor administration and conditions on the campus.

Nicholas County Judge-Executive Reese Smoot, Carlisle Mayor Lee Bentz, and Edgar Darrell, chairman of Nicholas County Conservation District sign a proclamation declaring April 30-May 7, 1989 as Soil and Water Stewardship Week.

DIED: Ethel Caswell Smith, 74, April 21, 1989.

MAY

Thursday, May 4, 1989

William N. Young, president of Deposit Bank of Carlisle placed his resignation at Monday meeting of April 24 in his retirement.

Mayor Lee Bentz said the 81 percent rise in sewer rates this year was necessary because the federal government had fined the city over $4,000 for not beginning construction on the new sewer plant.

Susan Trussell won the state contest in FHA sponsored gainful story telling competition in Louisville, Sunday, April 23, 1989.

BORN: Jarrett David Mynear, appeared in May 4, 1989.issue, Mean Ann Lucky, April 13, 1989; Steven Tyler Duncan, April 22, 1989.

MARRIED: David D. Lee and Pamela Sue Robinson, April 22, 1989.

DIED: Clarence D. Duncan, 84, April 27, 1989; Laura Belle Tincher McCay, 80, April 26, 1989; Sue Wilkerson, 92, April 25, 1989; Susan Jane Conyers, 72, May 2, 1989.

Thursday, May 11, 1989

Doug Garrett officially replaced Carol Power on the Carlisle City Council, Monday 8, 1989.

The Nicholas County Baseball team under the direction of Billy K. Anderson is region bound after claiming a 15-6 win over Bourbon County in the opening round.

Project Graduation is planned for June 28, 1989 which is an overnight save place for graduates.

A fire destroyed a barn and three tractors Sunday night at 1150 Crooked Creek Road.

BORN: Patrick Wayne Masters, April 14, 1989; Sarah Glen Fleming, April 29, 1989.

MARRIED: Lisa Clark and Dean A. McLean, April 8, 1989.

DIED: Patty R. Buchanan, 79; Milton A. Martenson, 61, May 7, 1989.

Thursday, May 18, 1989

Ward "Butch" Burnette, Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture, made Tom Hensley honorary Commissioner of Agriculture just before the Licking River Valley Development meeting at the Harrison County 4-H center.

Eugene R. Snapp, 63, Carlisle will resign as Carlisle Postmaster, June 30, 1989. Snapp a Nicholas County native is the son of the late Ray H. and Eva Mae Snapp of Nicholas County. He and his wife Louise have been married for 43 years.

DARE graduates are told "Be true to yourself" The 17 week training period taught by State Trooper Jim Dolwick taught the 6 grades the true meaning of drugs, what they can do to your body, and how to say NO.

Peter Chamness has resigned his teaching position after four years at Nicholas County High School to move on to Maysville where he will work with computers. Chamness and his wife, Cay and children Pruitt and Mary will still reside in Carlisle.

DIED: Blanche Viola Fryman, 86; Everett E. George, Sr., 84, May 8, 1989; James H. Mastin, 54, May 9, 1989; Frank Duckworth Gudgell, 92, May 9, 1989.

Thursday, May 25, 1989

The Carlisle City Council approved an ordinance Wednesday night stating if two or more persons standing on a public sidewalk block the fee passage of other persons and refuse to disperse on the order of the police can be fined from $5.00 to $100.00 and/ or imprisoned up to thirty days.

Lexington May Scotty Baesler spoke to the School-Community Honor Society Banquet held at Nicholas County Elementary last week.

Three magistrates upset. Smith becomes first woman to be elected; Smoot holds off Myers. Turnout rivals biggest ever with 68.75%.

Continued on Page 5

GENERAL NEWS

A look at 1989

Continued from Page 4

JUNE

Thursday, June 1, 1989

Nicholas County High School bids farewell to the Class of 1989 as Rep. Hopkins delivers the graduation address and presents Greg Reid, principal with a U.S. flag which has flown over the capitol.

Police investigate a break-in at the Carlisle Baptist Church, Saturday.

MARRIED: Laura Bruine and Steve Kimes, April 28, 1989.

Hall and Mark Ring, May 6, 1989.

DIED: John O. "Jack" Brennan, Sr., 79; Nora Williams Horn, 83, May 22, 1989; Beulah Shaw Cannon, Monday; Shawn Douglas Livingood, stillborn, May 16, 1989; Anna P. Jones, 97, May 20, 1989, Cora E. Mattox, 80, May 22, 1989; Robert Emanuel (Hazelwood) Hughes, 84, May 22, 1989.

MARRIED: Tracey Lynn Hillock and Ronald J. Lowe, by the Rev. Applegate; Maggie

The Carlisle Mercury/Josh Shepherd Photo

Tommy Vaughn gives the new computer room at Nicholas County Hospital a close look.

DIED: Charles L. Wilds, 60, May 28, 1989, Richard March Clay McIlvain, 74, May 26, 1989.

Thursday, June 8, 1989

Vote re-canvas fail changes winner in May 23 primary of the re-canvas, of votes of the Nicholas County primary election Wednesday evening.

School bus safety has been a concern of many people and organization across the state and country, Donald Elder, Superintendent of the Nicholas County schools said safety on the school buses comes first.

Nicholas County Attorney Jack Conley said violation of dumpster ordinances is difficult to enforce but he appreciates and supports efforts on the part of some individuals to report violations.

The Carlisle City Council voted 4-2 not to pass an ordinance giving a Carlisle man $5,000 for damages incurred when a stolen police cruiser wrecked and damaged two cars owned by the pair.

Scot R. Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry J. Allison earns his EMT certification.

MARRIED: Amy Elizabeth McFarland and Jeffrey Glenn Hamilton, June 3, 1989; Carla Hall and Darren Robinson, May 6, 1989; Tracey Lynn Fite and Jeffrey Snapp, May 19, 1989; Anne Lear Boothe and Matt Fogler, May 31, 1989.

DIED: Clarence H. Baugus, 83, May 30, 1989; Frances Kash Royce, 81, June 4, 1989; Dorathy Elizabeth Livingood Florence, 61, June 5, 1989.

Thursday, June 15, 1989

Nicholas County Fiscal Court gave preliminary approval of budget estimates for the 1989-90 fiscal year.

After 41 years of services, Jess T. Bach, head of maintenance, tendered resignation of his position to the Nicholas County school board.

A fire of undetermined origin swept through Rock Haven on US 68 last week. Fireman from the Nicholas County Department, City of Carlisle, Bourbon County and Paris responded to the call. According to state fire marshal the cause of the fire is unknown.

Construction of a multi-purpose building at Blue Licks State Parks continues to progress. Construction of the building is slated to be completed by August 1.

Miles Hughes earned his certification as an EMT instructor. He and his wife, Vanessa, reside in Carlisle. Vanessa is also an EMT and works for the Nicholas County Ambulance Service.

MARRIED: Kimberly Gail Ramey and Ewell R. Lyons, Jr., May 19, 1989.

DIED: Mark Treadway, 20, June 12, 1989; Martin V. Scott, 89, June 6, 1989; Martin Forrest Thompson, 65, Friday.

Thursday, June 22, 1989

Six girls are in the running for the 1989 Blackberry Festival Queen. The Candidates include, Mary Susan Dotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tedds Dotson; Christie D. Padgett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Padgett, Jr.; Mary Alicha Farah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Licha Farah; Rebecca Stewart, granddaughter of Ruth Stewart; Gretchen Lynn Judge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Judge; Sarah Katherine Blount, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ramey.

Kevin Thomas, youth minister at Carlisle Baptist Church, has been unanimously selected as full-time pastor of the church replacing former pastor Mike Greer.

The Chamber of Commerce is once again hosting the 5K Run, Walk to be started in front of the Carlisle Courthouse on July 4.

BORN: Justin Chase Techau, May 22, 1989.

DIED: Robert Leer Turner, 67, June 12, 1989; Ruby L. Clark, 70, June 18, 1989.

Thursday, June 29, 1989

Nicholas County Football Coach Robbie Barr resigns from the position. He will be the assistant principal and athletic director of Paris High School.

Nate Young is honored at his retirement from the Deposit Bank. The event was hosted by Carlisle- Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce and Magic Image, Inc.

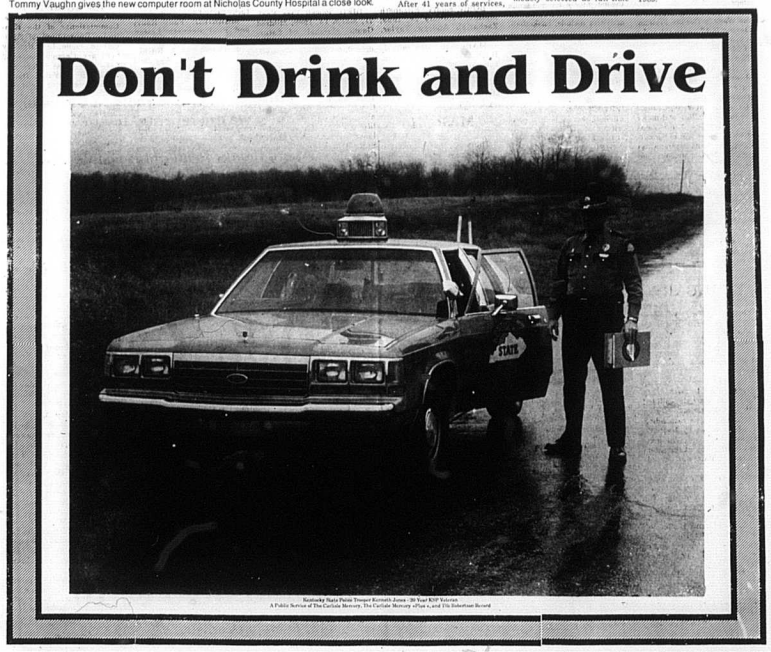
The master of ceremonies was Chamber of Commerce President Rob Hester. The event took place, June 23, 1989 at the 19th Hole of Carnico.

In the opinion of the majority attending a Task Force meeting the County Consolidation top is becoming hot news.

Lanny Hutchinson, President of First National Bank of Carlisle has announced two new directors. Serving on the board will be James Clark Lowe and Cliff Vice.

The Nicholas County School Board approved a general 2 percent increase in the classified personnel payroll for the 1989-90 school year.

DIED: Claude H. Wells, 75, June 25, 1989; Carl Hughes, 83, June 26, 1989; Lula Mae Bromagen Hopkins, 89, June 20, 1989; Celestine Jones, 87, June 26, 1989; Mrs. Thelma Wright, 89, June 1, 1989; Carl Lutes, 76, Lexington; Edna Barlow Jordan, 79, June 23, 1989.



Kentucky State Police Trooper Kenneth Jones / 20 Year KSP Veteran
A Public Service of The Carlisle Mercury, The Carlisle Mercury office, and 716 Suburban Bypass