Office manned once a month

Beginning in July, the Social Security administration will meet once instead of twice a month at the Nicholas County courthouse.

In a letter sent to Carlisle Mayor Lee Bentz, of the E.S. Goddard Branch, Thomas A. Carter, said due to the number of contacts in Nicholas County it is no longer cost effective to have face-to-face meetings twice a month.

Therefore, a representative from the social security office will be available the third Tuesday of every month at the Nicholas County Courthouse. Business may also be conducted by phoning or visiting the Mayville office.

32 give blood in drive

The National Guard is dedicated to serving the needs of our country. On Sunday, June 25, they showed a deep commitment to the Carlisle community during a blood drive at the blood drive. These 32 units will help save the lives of patients in area hospitals.

Central Kentucky Blood Center would like to thank Sgt. Jim Galbraith, for coordinating the event and to everyone who truly concerned about maintaining an adequate blood supply for the community.

The National Guard Army is an outstanding example of what community involvement is all about. Central Kentucky Blood Center commends their efforts. The following people took time to try and share their good health by donating at the drive:

Gary Charles, Jerry Watson, Rodney Potts, Billy Curtis, Danny McIntosh, Arnold Polfrey, Robert Whitrow, Timothy Bahrtel, Steven Metcalfe, Adam Jims, Keith Bercheiser, Oliver Guppe, and James Galbraith.

Raymond Oney, Richard Shanks, James Bullock, Herbert Sargent, Billy Ross, Anthony Kisseladen, Herbert Collier, Robert Clemmons, Jeffery Wells, Clarence Compton, and Benjamin Humphrey.

Nicholas day is declared at Horse Park

Residents of Nicholas County will be guests for a "County Day" celebration at the Kentucky Horse Park. The event is scheduled for July 8.

For residents of the counties involved, admission is free to the Horse Park. Among attractions covered in the park's general admission are the two horse movies, the horse museum, the motorized park tour, the Parade of Breeds, the walking farm tour, and the Hall of Champions, home of champion thoroughbreds John Henry, Forge, and stand-out-the-Roughing Willie.

A valid driver's license from one of the counties involved county the driver and other family members.

Other County Days are scheduled to be conducted throughout most of 1989, and Lee Chokak, the Park's executive director. By the end of the year, all 120 counties will have been honored with a County Day.

Tourism Secretary May Ray Oakes said the program was designed to make more Kentuckians aware of the Horse Park's attractions.

"We want more Kentuckians to know the Horse Park belongs to them," she said.

Crawford, WLEX win television awards

WLEX-TV has been named the winner of major broadcast awards, including one international competition.
