While veterans flanked a two Jima re-enactment all eyes were on the float, part of the Blackberry Festival Parade. Seated, l-r, John Tapp, Ed O'Neil (both WW II), Back, l-r, Jerry Ritchie, Donnie Dixon (Viet Nam), Charles Gates (Korean War), Dorsey Watkins (Korean War), Not pictured, WW I, Webb Buntin, John DeAtley, and James Ishmael. Front to back on two Jima float, from the Carlisle Unit of the National Guard Company D, Eddie Goldy, Anthony Kiskaden, William Brown, Ron Roser, Jerry Wasson. Lt. Governor Breton Jones and Agriculture Commissioner Butch Burnette spoke to the gathering, while a dinner was held at Eddie's Restaurant for both men, before the parade. Dancers filled the streets, rides filled the courthouse lawn, and Kyle Allison marked the occasion with a single shot as thousands visited Carlisle during the festival. Mary Susan Dotson was crowned queen for 1989 as an honor guard stood at attention.
