BAKED KENTUCKY
COUNTRY HAM
Soak old ham in water overnight; remove hook, scrub thoroughly with stiff brush; place ham, skin side up in deep open roaster.
Add water to within 2-inches of top of pan and add about a cup of honey or brown sugar; cook slowly, 200 degrees as ham will simmer, but not boil. Cook an average of 20 minutes per pound of ham. Remove skin and allow to cool in liquid in which it was cooked.
After ham is cooled, remove from liquid and cover with paste made of brown sugar moistened with vinegar or in hot oven till sugar is melted. Serve hot or cold; cut slices then starting at hook end.
