

Welcome To Maysville And EXPO '89

To our old friends who are returning to EXPO, we all say Welcome Back! To those of your planning your first visit to EXPO (or Maysville)... come on and join the fun.

Clyde Barbour, his staff, and hundreds of area people create a modern 4-day miracle in a tobacco warehouse. The Kentucky King is transformed into a showcase for more than 400 local and area exhibits. Top name entertainment, good food and drink, plus an atmosphere charged with excitement combine to make this an unforgettable experience.

As you make your plans to join us, come early... and you'll soon find yourself making plans to come again... for the shopping... for the services... for arts and education and much more.
