Jackets allow Eagles.....

Continued from Page 1

However, the turnover was met with another turnover as Fawns came up with a fumble recovery.

The Eagles were called for a personal foul giving Nicholas County a second first down.

However, the Bluejackets air attack went nowhere, though Daniel Brown, scrambling for an open man, was in the clear for a Bluejackets gain, but elected to pass anyway, which came up incomplete.

The second half went a bit better for the Bluejackets as the Madison Southern Eagles managed only one score throughout this half of the game.

The Eagle score came early in the third quarter as Stanifer returned the kickoff to mid-field.

Chris Jones held off a first down for one play and Hilander stopped the sweep, but not well enough to keep the Eagles from a first.

Marching quickly down the field, Stanifer took the ball around the end and flipped over Hilander, waiting in front of the goal line, for the last Eagle score.

The extra point attempt was stopped leaving the Eagles ahead 28-0.

The Bluejackets started slowly, but their offensive drives began to work for them as Hilander took one flat pass to within four yards of the first down.

Daniel Brown, scrambling for another pass, couldn't find anyone open and decided to keep it for a six yard gain that garnered a first down.

Brumback took the ball for a nine yard gain and Raymond Brown moved it across for the first down, but a Bluejacket penalty again kept them short of gaining ground.

The Eagles looked as though they were going to score again when Tim Howard, tailback for the Eagles, was hit hard and fumbled the ball and the Bluejackets came up with the recovery.

Though gaining one first down off an illegal motion call, the Bluejackets gained little and punted the ball away.

Again, a fumble saved the Bluejackets as Travis Strom was stuck in the backfield and the Bluejackets recovered.

Raymond Brown made the first down off two plays before the Bluejackets made the most spectacular play of the game.

Daniel Brown made a quick pass across the width of the backfield to Brumback who then hurled the ball 53 yards right in to the arms of Hilander and the Bluejackets score, saving them from being shut out in the game.

Raymond Brown took the ball around the end for the two point conversion making the final score 28-8.

Head Coach Greg Letcher said Madison Southern was a better team than the Bluejackets may have anticipated. That and the team seemed a little flat coming in to the ball game may explain why Nicholas County started the game so poorly.

"The team has to learn to set the tempo, not follow the other team's lead. The first plays set the tone for the game and because we started out slowly, underrating the Eagle's, we ended up trying to play catch up," Letcher said.

"The team has to learn to set the tempo, not follow the other team's lead. The first plays set the tone for the game and because we started out slowly, underrating the Eagle's, we ended up trying to play catch up," Letcher said.

Otherwise, Letcher said, the team will continue to work on their play, possibly concentrating on improving their passing game to prepare for Friday night.

"Our line blocking was off against Madison Southern, but the team will be fired up to play this Friday and we are going to be a more determined team," Letcher said.

The Lewis County game will be at home on the Bluejackets field. Kickoff will be at 8 p.m.

Jackets face Lewis Co. in home game Friday

Lewis County will face the Bluejackets at home this week and Head Coach Greg Letcher is optimistic.

Lewis is just a bit bigger than Nicholas, but in comparing them, the Bluejackets match up to them pretty evenly, Letcher said.

Though both teams fell to Mason County, Lewis County played them last week, on review, the Lions did not fare as well against Mason as the Bluejackets did earlier in the season.

"The big thing we are going to have to work out is ridding ourselves of penalties," Letcher said," If we can go in playing mistake free football, then at the very least, it should be a good game."
