Staff and Wire Dispatches

MOREHEAD - Ricky Martin rushed for two touchdowns and Middle Tennessee's defense yielded more than 300 yards but no TDs as the Blue Raiders defeated Morehead State 34-3 in Ohio Valley Conference action Saturday.

Games for the coming week have been moved to Sunday, October 22, due to U.K. Wheelcut game at High School.

October 22 - Sunday
 1 p.m. Celtics vs. Rebels
 3 p.m. Rebels vs. Mustangs
 4 p.m. Rockets vs. Bears
 5 p.m. Hawks vs. Demons
 7 p.m. Patriots vs. Bulls.

Clear Medical Center in Morehead for evaluation, said Morehead Sports Information Director Randy Stacy.

Baldrige, 45, was transferred Saturday evening to Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington as a precautionary measure, Stacy said.

Baldrige was listed in stable condition, Stacy said. There had been no determination of what had caused the problem, he said.

After the game, Morehead head coach Bill Baldrige complained of chest pains and was taken to St. Joe Campbell's 1-yard run and a 41-yard field goal by Joe Lisle gave the Blue Raiders a 17-3 halftime lead.

Morehead placekicker Mitch Fedak gave the Eagles their only points of the game with a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The Eagles were unable to get the ball past muffed in the first half, with the exception of setting up Fedak's three-pointer.

Middle Tennessee, 4-3 overall and 2-0 in the OVC, scored first when Martin ran 33 yards for a TD, capping a nine-play, 86-yard drive. Martin led the Blue Raiders in rushing with 85 yards on 14 carries.
