

Local News

Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mr. Violet Boake of Covington, spent the day, Monday, with Mrs. Gladys Kenney. Mrs. Gladys Kenney and Mrs. Gladys Kenney-Layne Hollar also dined with her on Monday night.

Mrs. H.A. Gausser entered the Nicholas County Hospital on Tuesday, having suffered a heart attack at her home that morning. She remained a patient there for treatment, but is improving. She had many visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hollar spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gibson and sons, Nick and Marcus of Paducah, Tennessee.

There will be a chili supper for the youth and adults at the Headquarters Church on Friday night, October 27, at 8 p.m. You may dress in costumes if you like.

Billie and Chester Okerman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitson Jr. and Carl Whisen, Cleo Ritchie, Armand Weddle and Carol Sapp visited their home on Sunday night for birthdays of Shelly Hillis and Chester Okerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar visited Mrs. Yada Barlow, Arnold Harris, Nathan Ritchie, Dore Ethel Ritchie and Marvin Jones at the Pioneer Rest Home in Flemingsburg on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett and Daley Kennedy spent a few days this week vacationing in the Smokies.

Amanda Gausser spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Caswell, Carlisle. She also spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Denver Kirby and family and the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gause in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady enjoyed the Fall Classic Horse Show held at Morehead State University's inside arena on Saturday night.

A large crowd attended the commencement all day Sunday at Hartsville Church. A good day of fellowship with friends was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds "Bugs" Green, Dayton, Ohio, visited their home on Sunday.

I regret very much the error made in printing the Saltwell news last week. Billy Allison had entered the University Hospital on Monday where he underwent major surgery, instead of mourning the passing of Miss Hazel Swartz. It was also an item of news, and I do regret the miss-ups, for we were not related items.

Mr. and Mrs. John Will Moore, Paris, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Snapp, Buffalo Trace, Saturday night.

Justin Howard, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howard, was a patient at Nicholas County Hospital suffering from pneumonia. He was able to return home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Moore of Liberty, Indiana, and many others visited Orville Doyle the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Moore of Liberty, Indiana, and many others visited Orville Doyle the past week.

There will be a chili supper for the youth and adults at the Headquarters Church on Friday night, October 27, at 8 p.m. You may dress in costumes if you like.

Billie and Chester Okerman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitson Jr. and Carl Whisen, Cleo Ritchie, Armand Weddle and Carol Sapp visited their home on Sunday night for birthdays of Shelly Hillis and Chester Okerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar visited Mrs. Yada Barlow, Arnold Harris, Nathan Ritchie, Dore Ethel Ritchie and Marvin Jones at the Pioneer Rest Home in Flemingsburg on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett and Daley Kennedy spent a few days this week vacationing in the Smokies.

Amanda Gausser spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Caswell, Carlisle. She also spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Denver Kirby and family and the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gause in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady enjoyed the Fall Classic Horse Show held at Morehead State University's inside arena on Saturday night.

A large crowd attended the commencement all day Sunday at Hartsville Church. A good day of fellowship with friends was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds "Bugs" Green, Dayton, Ohio, visited their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wagoner Harvey-Wagoner wed

Miss Alceia Maria Harvey (Tina), niece of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stone, Mrs. Jerry Galbreath and Andrea Layne Haller Bill George, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar, Chris Haller, Denise Stone, Diane Smith, Philip Caldwell and Mrs. Ben Allison.

Miss Sally Lett and Mrs. Wilma McDuff of Ewing, Missouri, spent Sunday with Reverend and Mrs. J.H. Ritchie of Millersburg.

Mrs. Gladys Kenney and Myrtle Hollar visited Mrs. Mae Lovely and Mrs. Alene Home in North Middletown on Sunday.

I regret very much the error made in printing the Saltwell news last week. Billy Allison had entered the University Hospital on Monday where he underwent major surgery, instead of mourning the passing of Miss Hazel Swartz. It was also an item of news, and I do regret the miss-ups, for we were not related items.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, wore a floor length gown of white crystal organza over Royal satin.

The heart shaped bodice was decorated with lace appliques highlighted with seed pearls, crystal beads, and sequins. The dropped shoulder sleeves featured layers of wired ruffled organza.

The skirt fell into a cathedral length train with applied insets of layered wired organza.

The brides hairpiece was of platted seed pearls and crystals cascading to one side.

The bride wore her great-grandmother's pearl and diamond wedding tiara and carried a cascade of rose, blue and white silk lilies and roses with a white teddy bear nestled in pearls and white satin ribbons.

The brides maids wore identical toe length dresses of pale watercolor flowers in polished cotton chint.

Miss Lisa Ann Buckler served the bride as her maid of honor.

The bride and groom were carried to their reception at the Worthington Center at Blue Licks State Park in a horse drawn carriage led by Monroe Wells of Millersburg.

After a wedding trip to Gowen Forge, Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wagoner will live at 127 Oriskany Street, Carlisle, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Atkinson, Alma Atkinson, and Shirlan Hamm attended the funeral of Mrs. Wolfe on Tuesday afternoon, October 17.

Mrs. Wolfe was the mother of Mrs. Suive (Kay) Atkinson of Columbus.

Mr. Key Heger of Chicago, was weekend guest of Miss Kay Colyer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Conley.

They attended the Kentland races and the UK-LSU football game on Saturday.

R & A

Mr. and Mrs. Alison Craig, Robertson County, attended visitation for Mrs. Ben Wolfe, who passed away at the Woodhead Funeral Home in Falmouth, Kentucky, on Monday, October 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Atkinson, Alma Atkinson, and Shirlan Hamm attended the funeral of Mrs. Wolfe on Tuesday afternoon, October 17.

Mrs. Wolfe was the mother of Mrs. Suive (Kay) Atkinson of Columbus.

Mr. Key Heger of Chicago, was weekend guest of Miss Kay Colyer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Conley.

They attended the Kentland races and the UK-LSU football game on Saturday.

Hey Kids! The Carlisle Mercury will distribute Halloween Candy again this year. To gather in your treat, stop by The Mercury office from 6 - 8 p.m. Tuesday, October 31. HAPPY HALLOWEEN

It's Halloween Time! Russell Stover Candy Cards Hair & Face Colors Accessories

Hopkins Drug Main Street - Carlisle 289-5122

Pull Lever 6A

RE-ELECT REESE SMOOT

Nicholas County Judge-Executive Paid for by candidate

Inventory Liquidation Sale 25% off

Everything in our Store 10% off on Tennis Shoes & Work Clothes

HERALD'S NEWS WEAR Tux Rentals

I would appreciate your support and help in my campaign for Carlisle City Councilman.

As a working citizen, I know that service on the council is more than just a hobby; it is a serious job.

If elected, I will work to resolve any problems you may bring before the council, for improving city government, and for a safer and better community in which to live.

Dennis C. Allison Carlisle City Councilman To The Citizens of Carlisle.

COMMUNITY

Homemakers

Carlisle West Homemakers The October meeting of the Carlisle West Homemakers was held at the Nicholas County Extension Office on October 19, 1989 at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by V. P. Maria Lawrence with Ovanna McWhorter giving the devotion.

Topics covered during the business meeting included Pennies for Friendship, Report on Biogress Area Meeting, Committee Chairman, fellows and needs of the Special Olympics that our group may help to fill.

Our group are very much saddened by the passing of our beloved sister Hazel Swartz. She was our publicity chairman.

Secret Pal gifts were exchanged and renewed and names drawn for another year. Prizes were awarded and some had guessed their names were given.

Our group welcomed back Evelyn George, our Secretary and Treasurer who had been on leave of absence.

From the sick list from this club are Elizabeth Caywood, Cardia Hamilton, Betty Sallee, and Mary Belle Shively.

She wore a white organza dress with pink and green flowers embroidered on it.

Her pink satin sash gathered into a bow in the back and matched her pink satin built slipper.

Daniel Dampier of platted seed pearls and crystals cascading to one side.

The bride and groom were carried to their reception at the Worthington Center at Blue Licks State Park in a horse drawn carriage led by Monroe Wells of Millersburg.

After a wedding trip to Gowen Forge, Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wagoner will live at 127 Oriskany Street, Carlisle, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Atkinson, Alma Atkinson, and Shirlan Hamm attended the funeral of Mrs. Wolfe on Tuesday afternoon, October 17.

Mrs. Wolfe was the mother of Mrs. Suive (Kay) Atkinson of Columbus.

Mr. Key Heger of Chicago, was weekend guest of Miss Kay Colyer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Conley.

They attended the Kentland races and the UK-LSU football game on Saturday.

Hey Kids! The Carlisle Mercury will distribute Halloween Candy again this year. To gather in your treat, stop by The Mercury office from 6 - 8 p.m. Tuesday, October 31. HAPPY HALLOWEEN

It's Halloween Time! Russell Stover Candy Cards Hair & Face Colors Accessories

Hopkins Drug Main Street - Carlisle 289-5122

Pull Lever 6A

RE-ELECT REESE SMOOT

Nicholas County Judge-Executive Paid for by candidate

Inventory Liquidation Sale 25% off

Everything in our Store 10% off on Tennis Shoes & Work Clothes

Reunions

Shannon Reunion Descendants of Emerson Shannon reunion was held in Millersburg, Ky. October 4, 1989. Those attending the reunion were...

There was a pause in memory for family members who had passed away in the past year.

A special tribute was paid to Elmer Clyde Graves who left us on March 27, 1988.

Other names were called in remembrance.

They were introduced the newest family members.

Special recognition was given to the oldest Graves present: Elizabeth, Lizzie May, Graves, who great-granddaughter, 11 month old Jenna Ramsey, was the youngest member present.

Emmalene Graves had the most family members present.

Carlill Graves traveled the farthest, coming from New York by way of N.C.

We did have a younger member than Jenna, but of family left early, the young son of Mike Graves and Angela and Jack Jr. of there was much laughter and reminiscing with family members who had long contact with their family member.

Shannon of Anderson Indiana, Eugene Alexandrin, Ted and Dennis Shannon, Jerri and Gene Lewis, Jack and Marie of Marion, Ind. Betty Martha, Bobby and Amanda Shanks of Junesville, Ind., Appligle, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Milled, Howard Wright of Gas Ferry, Ind. and Mrs. Sharon City, Ind. Alma Shriver of St. Charles, Missouri.

Graves Reunion The second annual Graves reunion was held September 24, 1989 at Blue Licks State Park in the beautiful Worthington multipurpose building. At 1:30 p.m. a prayer service for the graves reunion was held by Dorothy Carter of Carlisle. Mrs. Jeff Orme and Heather meal was enjoyed by everyone.

After lunch, with Theda Howard acting as auctioneer, Gerald Tudor, son of Leroy, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Keith French of Centerville, Ohio, Donald Graves of Winchester, Gene and Alberta McCord, Leona McCord Gearing of Danville, Ill., and Mrs. Edna Mae Alexander of Berea, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Keith French of Centerville, Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio, Antioch, Ohio, and Cincinnati, Ohio.

Everyone voted to have an election called in a Cincinnati, Ohio, Antioch, Ohio, and Cincinnati, Ohio.

This will be our auction also so ladies, don't forget your items for this.

Phyllis Brady, Reporter.

Washington tourists Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howers, Mr. and Mrs. Don Howers and son Adam, spent last week in Washington, D.C. in the Home Economics Department at Nicholas County High School.

The lesson will be a work shop on making Berry Baskets. Suppliers for the baskets will be available for those who ordered them earlier, with a small registration fee will be charged for more information contact the Home Economics Department at Nicholas County High School, 289-7111.

Whether you are interested in a new home refinancing your present one, Bourbon Bank gives you a loan you can live with.

Table with columns: TERM, RATE, A.P.R. for 30 YEAR, 15 YEAR.

Please visit or call us now, Loan Center (606) 987-1795 or 1-800-248-6671

Bourbon Bank 4th & Main, Paris, Kentucky 40361

FOODTOWN We Bring You Quality Products At Reasonable Prices

Graves, Augusta, Wayne and Emily Killa, Theda, Carl, and Trent Howard all of Mt. Olivet, Gary French, Alexandria, Helen and Loretta Thompson, Dawn and Juanita Orme of Mayfield, Grace Dently all of Brooksville, Tennessee, and Denise Lawrence, Virginia Thomas and Mary Orme, Amanda Lawrence, Tony Hamblin, Lewis Lawrence, Vickie Dunn, Mark Carroll, and Douglas Lawrence all of Georgetown, Ky.

Those who assisted and served as host and hostess were Theda and Carroll Howard, Sue and George Hoyt, Scotty and Pat Graves, Janet England and Sandy Sweeney, along with every family member present.

Those who assisted and served as host and hostess were Theda and Carroll Howard, Sue and George Hoyt, Scotty and Pat Graves, Janet England and Sandy Sweeney, along with every family member present.

Those who assisted and served as host and hostess were Theda and Carroll Howard, Sue and George Hoyt, Scotty and Pat Graves, Janet England and Sandy Sweeney, along with every family member present.

Those who assisted and served as host and hostess were Theda and Carroll Howard, Sue and George Hoyt, Scotty and Pat Graves, Janet England and Sandy Sweeney, along with every family member present.

ELECT James "Frog" Fuller for City Council

Pull Lever #16C EVERY VOTE COUNTS ELECT

Frankie Hughes Mayor

City of Carlisle Non-Partisan

RE-Elect Betty H. Barton Carlisle City Council

Many thanks to the voters of Carlisle for supporting me during the past six years that I have served on the City Council.

I ask for your support and prayers on November 7th. If elected again, I will serve to the best of my ability.

Thanks, Betty H. Barton

Kitchen Korner Hot Mulled Cider

In a large saucenpan combine cider and brown sugar. The cinnamon sticks, allspice and cloves in a cheesecloth square. Add to cider mixture. Bring to boil. Cover, reduce heat, and simmer 10 minutes. Remove and discard the spice bag. Serve in mugs garnished with wedges of orange. Rehydrate any leftover cider and reheats as needed.

FOODTOWN We Bring You Quality Products At Reasonable Prices