THE CARLISLE MERCURY SPORTS EXTRA!

Bath, weather stop Nicholas

By Josh Shepherd
For The Carlisle Mercury

It was a tough game for the Bluejackets Friday night as the Bath County Wildcats, under the coldest weather conditions this season, defeated Nicholas County 36-0.

Nicholas County got off to an early start and, due largely to a sack on Shawn Tolles from Travis Sims on second down, shut down Bath's first possession.

The offense also showed life as Raymond Brown ran for five yards, Hillander received a pass to within one yard of the first and Daniel Brown, on a quarterback sneak, took the ball for a first down.

However, a failed attempt to draw the Wildcats' offenses forced the Bluejackets to punt.

Bath scored on first down as Damon Reed took the pitch out around right end and ran it in for a touchdown.
