A NEVER ENDING STORY

things before entering his time of glory.
Luke 24, 38-53
"Who are you frightened?" he asked. "Why do you doubt that it is really I? Look at my hands! Look at my feet! You can see that it is I, my hands and my feet are the same as yours. I am not a ghost! For ghosts don't have bodies, as you see that I do."

And now I will send the Holy Spirit upon you, just as my Father promised. Don't begin telling others yet - stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven."

As he spoke, he held out his hands for them to see the marks of the nails, and showed them the wounds in his feet.

And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem filled with mighty joy, and were continually in the Temple, praising God.

They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he ate it as they watched!
Then he said, "When I was with you before, don't you remember my telling you that everything written about me by Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms must all come true?" Then he opened their minds to understand at least these many Scriptures:

And he said, "Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah must suffer and die and rise again from the dead on the third day, and that this message of salvation should be taken from Jerusalem to all the nations. There is forgiveness of sins for all who turn to me. You have seen these prophecies come true."
